Legislator Demands Say On Telegram

Stanton Protests Senate Probe Of Peace Wire

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Saying "I'm not going to be gagged," Assemblyman William F. Stanton today demanded a full hearing on a Senate resolution he said accuses him of committing a felony. (See also story, page 8.)

"You're going to be gagged if you're not speaking to the point," Assembly Majority Leader Jerome R. Waldie of Antioch snapped back at his fellow Democrat as the debate erupted on the Assembly floor.

Stanton, for the second time in a week, rose in the Assembly to protest the resolution, which asks a federal probe of a telegram he and two colleagues sent to foreign leaders uring peace negotiations in Viet Nam.

'UNDER A CLOUD'

The Senate resolution said a federal law — the 1799 law — forbids such a message.

Stanton said the resolution asks "that I be investigated to see if I committed a felony.

"I am asking that as long as I serve under such a cloud, I am most anxious for Senator Burns to go forward with the resolution."

Senate President Pro Tem Hugh M. Burns, D-Fresno, introduced the resolution along with Senate Minority Leader John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

OUT OF ORDER

Waldie protested that Stanton's reference to the resolution was out of order — that he could only speak to defend himself against "something that would incapacitate him from serving as a member of this house."

Stanton maintained that if he were guilty of a felony, he couldn't serve in the legislature.

That's when Stanton, of San Jose, protested that he was being gagged.

"I have a right to continue," he said. "If any of you members were accused, I would not use any of these ingenious and meretricious methods of parliamentary procedures to prevent you from speaking."

PREACHER HAS VISION —BURIES TELEVISION

SANFORD, N. C. (UPI) — A Sanford lay preacher says he had a vision last August, telling him of the evil effects of television and directing him to bury his set.

So, says Christopher McMillan, he did just as he was told and dug a six-foot grave for the television set in his front yard and placed a tombstone above it.

He had the marker inscribed to read:

"August 29, 1964. Then God spoke and said time will not permit man to right his wrongs. Put your house in order. Reporting time is near. TV is the devil's greatest source of evil. God wants his children saved."

McMillan said radio is all right.

Bella Aaron Out Of Schools Race

Bella H. Aaron of 325 Point San Pedro Road, San Rafael, announced today that she will not seek re-election to the San Rafael Board of Education.

Elected to the board in 1961, Mrs. Aaron said she is forced to resign due to poor health.

Mrs. Aaron continued today to press her role of dissent over purchase of tidal lands for school sites.

She opposed the purchase of the five-acre Canal Street site and is fighting proposed purchase of 10 acres further east in the San Rafael mud flats.

Board members learned Tuesday night that construction of a two-story school on the Canal Street site would not be possible as originally supposed. Mrs. Aaron, who was unable to attend the Tuesday meeting, said today that her opposition to the site appeared justified.

"How are they going to get everything they plan on five acres with just one level?" she asked.

Mrs. Aaron's decision not to run again throws the race wide open. Her term and that of John M. Bagshaw expire in April. Bagshaw announced earlier that he would not run.

Another position could open up after the election if C. Paul Bettini, now chairman of the board of education, should be successful in his campaign for mayor.

Opposition for Bettini was assured today by Joseph R. Filippo, San Rafael contractor. He said he would run for mayor if incumbent John F. McInnis decides not to make the race.

McInnis was expected to decide at a testimonial dinner for him at Peacock Gap Country Club at 7:30 p.m. today. Former Mayor George Christopher of

Korea Sends Troops; Boss Khanh Bows

SAIGON (UPI)—Thousand-pound bombs dropped by U.S. B57 jet bombers killed at least 100 Viet Cong rebels in one of six strikes in support of Vietnamese troops, Vietnamese military sources reported today.

Vietnamese Brig Gen. Nguyen Huu So said his troops counted 100 Viet Cong bodies in this one strike. Another 88 were reported killed elsewhere in the attacks by the light bombers and F100 Supersobres which dropped smaller bombs.

KHANH DEPARTS

New details of yesterday's attacks were reported as Lt. Gen. Nguyen Khanh flew to Hong Kong en route to "exile" as an observer to the United Nations in New York. He had been stripped of power earlier in the week.

Khanh told newsmen he would seek U.N. support against the Viet Cong. At a news conference he did not rule out the possibility of negotiations but said it could not occur until the Communists halt their pressure and the non-Communist countries support South Viet Nam.

Brig. Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky, the Vietnamese air force commander, disclosed meanwhile that last weekend's political coup had forced the air force to abandon a planned strike last Friday against targets in Communist North Viet Nam.

The coup was mounted by rebellious officers shortly after noon Friday. It fizzled out by Saturday morning but kept the air operations center immobilized for almost 22 hours.

KOREANS LAND

In another war development the first 600 of an expected 2,000 South Korean troops landed in Saigon today amidst strict security precautions. The troops arrived aboard landing ships which moved up the Saigon River with a destroyer escort.

Before leaving Saigon today Khanh was given his country's highest medal — the Cross of Valor, First Class, after turning over command to Maj. Gen. Tran Van Minh.

Khanh's demise as military strongman became official one day after U. S. authorities announced that American-piloted jet bombers have been unleashed against Communist guerrillas, marking another turning point in the war.

The increased direct American participation in the war effort inside South Viet Nam was reported against a backdrop of Truce Parley Moves Denied By LBJ Aide

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says it is not engaged in any negotiations for a Viet Nam settlement and that no one has been authorized to negotiate in behalf of the United States.

George E. Reedy, presidential press secretary, made these points yesterday after U.N. Secretary-General U Thant said in New York that he had made concrete proposals aimed at a negotiated settlement of the Vietnamese war. France and the Soviet Union are also seeking such an agreement.

But Reedy said: "I know of no specific proposal for negotiation that has been made to this government."

President Johnson is known to feel that, at this stage, there is no evidence that the Chinese and North Vietnamese Communists are interested in serious talks on Viet Nam. Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai said

Court Asked To Muzzle PUC Leader

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The issue over whether William Bennett, a member of the California Public Utilities Commission, can continue to represent the state in a natural gas federal anti-trust suit has been placed before Chief Justice Earl Warren. (See also story page 8.)

Gov. Brown has urged Bennett to drop out but Bennett says he's sticking until the state's attorney general removes him.

Today Bennett was served with a copy of El Paso Natural Gas Co.'s objection to his continuance. Bennett said Harrison Scott, El Paso's attorney in San Franisco, airmailed the brief to Warren.

Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch, who conferred yesterday with Brown in Sacramento, planned conferences today on whether to revoke Bennett's power of attorney.

Fairfax Attorney Tells Of A Secret Meeting

The Fairfax City Council held a secret meeting last week at the Deer Park Villa.

This was disclosed last night by City Atty. Wallace S. Meyers in the course of a talk on the Ralph Brown Act, California's open meeting law, at a dinner meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and Councilmen.

"We had a meeting of the Fairfax City Council right in this room a week ago, without any public announcement," boasted Meyers. "There were just the five councilmen and me present. We talked about city business but didn't make any decisions."

This was all legal and in the public interest, he contended. He did not say what city business was discussed. (See also story, page 3.)

State Of Siege In Guatemala —I-J Reporter Visiting There

Guatemla was under a "state of siege" today, apparently in an effort to suppress Castro inspired guerrilla attacks in rural areas, Associated Press and United Press International reported.

The decree, announced last night, was imposed for "as long as necessary." It suspended civil rights and put a long delay on communications.

There was a four-to-six hour delay in telephone calls.

Independent-Journal reporter Ellen Dietschy, vacationing in Guatemala, had not been heard from by noon despite efforts to reach her by telephone.

Miss Dietschy was visiting Helen Hamilton, an employee in the United States embassy in Guatemala City. The Independent-Journal could not get through to the embassy today.

Col. Enrique Peralta Azurdia, head of the junta which overthrew President Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes in 1963, said last night that groups of armed men have attacked civilians and authorities in a "widespread plan to spread terror."

This was the reason his government declared the state of siege, he said.

Associated Press reported about 500 terrorist guerrillas operating in various areas.

Before the decree of siege, a modified form of martial law was published. Private radio stations in Guatemala were ordered to link up with the government station in a network "to broadcast official news."

Lawmakers Vote Synanon Homes Investigation

An investigation of Synanon centers for narcotics addicts, including that at Marshall, was authorized today by the rules committee of the State Assembly in Sacramento.

The investigation will be included in an over-all study of the narcotics problem in California.

Chairman James R. Mills, D-San Diego, charged the State Corrections Department has refused to cooperate with Synanon, and has "the set and rather fossilized attitude that their way is the best way, no matter how many failures they have," Associated Press reported from Sacramento.

The study, proposed in a resolution by Assemblyman George A. Willson, D-Huntington Park, will also take a broad look at narcotics laws, and treatment and prevention of addiction.

Bills Introduced To Clip Highway Commission Wings

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A package of 14 bills aimed at altering the State Highway Commission's "shortest distance between two points" policy of freeway planning was introduced in the Assembly today.

The bills provide for making the commission less dependent on the State Division of Highways, insuring impartial hearing officers to preside over freeway disputes and giving the public more voice in selecting routes.

The legislation also would give the State Park Commission power to veto freeway routings through state parks.

The bills grew out of a report by the Assembly Committee on Natural Resources, Planning and Public Works. The program was explained by Committee Chairman Edwin L. Z'berg, D-Sacramento, at a news conference.

Z'berg said the bills are designed "to make the highway commission consider other factors in planning freeways than just the shortest distance between two points."

Under the legislation, the commission would be provided with its own research staff rather than being dependent on that of the State Highway Division.

The administrator of highway transportation would be dropped as chairman of the commission. The chairman would instead be elected by the commission from its appointed members.

Divorce Laws Group Urged

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state's marriage and divorce laws would be put under the legislative microscope for examination under a lower house resolution introduced today.

The measure, sponsored by George A. Willson, D-Huntington Park, would create a Joint Senate and Assembly Investigating and Fact Finding Committee on Domestic Relations, continuing the study of a previous interim committee.

It is co-sponsored by Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville.

Congressional Redistrict Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposed constitutional amendment that would require congressional districts of nearly the same population was approved today by the House Judiciary Committee.

The amendment does not deal with the apportionment of state legislatures.

Under the proposed amendment, no congressional district could have a population varying by more than 15 per cent from the state's average district.

Reapportionment Expert Detects 'Slight Retreat'

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The Senate's special reapportionment attorney said today the U.S. Supreme Court is beginning to make a "slight retreat" from its landmark "one-man, one-vote," ruling.

Herman Selvin, Los Angeles, hired to advise the Senate on reapportionment, testified at the first meeting of the 13-member Senate Reapportionment Committee.

Eventually, he said, the court may decide it made a mistake.

Meanwhile he urged the legislature to aid its own cause by making a "strong showing of diligent effort" to adopt a reapportionment plan before it adjourns this year.

Klan Grabs Back Its Bedsheet

NAMPA, Idaho (AP) — For one whole day, Paul Bellesen was the great titan of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan for all of Idaho.

Then he got booted out.

Bellesen

"Now I just figured they might do something like that," said Bellesen.

He's a Negro.

Bellesen, 33, owner and operator of a janitor service, was appointed Idaho's highest and only Klan official after writing a letter to Imperial Wizard James R. Venable of Tucker, Ga.

Bellesen said he signed a statement that he was a "white, Anglo-Saxon Protestant," and mailed his membership application along with the $15 fee.

"Being a Negro and supposedly unable to read anyway, I signed it," he said.

Incidentally, he's also a Roman Catholic.

Then last night Venable was informed that his new recruit was a Negro.

"He has perpetrated a fraud through the mails," said Venable, promptly revoking Bellesen's membership.

BLACK JACKET RIDING HALTED UNTIL SPRING

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — An irate landlord called police last night, complaining that a tenant was riding a motorcycle in an apartment.

Investigating officers found a man sitting on the running motorcycle which was on a stand in his living room. The man told police he was "road testing" the vehicle.

Officers told him to wait for warmer weather and take the cycle outside.

Communist Party Again Faces Charge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A federal grand jury today reindicted the Communist Party of the U.S.A. for failing to register as a Communist action organization controlled by the Soviet Union.

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach said the new indictment, similar to a 1961 indictment of the party, was returned by a federal grand jury in Washington.

The U.S. Court of Appeals reversed an earlier conviction of the party, which carried a $120,000 fine, by ruling that the government had failed to prove that a willing volunteer was available to register the party.

The new indictment specifically charged that the party failed to register "even though it knew there was a volunteer willing to register on behalf of the party."

India's Leader Surrenders On Language Issue

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri completed a politically embarrassing retreat today in India's explosive language dispute.

Shastri pledged in Parliament that his government will meet the demands of southern Indians for legal assurances that their minority languages and regional interests will be protected.

The prime minister had tried to spread the use of Hindi, a northern language, as the official language of multilingual India. He began backtracking earlier this month when southerners, who speak Tamil or Telugu, started agitating for the continued use of English as a second official language.

The agitation turned into rioting in which more than 60 persons were killed. Shastri gave verbal assurances that the economic and cultural rights of non-Hindi speakers would be protected, but the southerners demanded that he put his words into law.

HOW TO GET HAPPY

Circuit Judge James Montante shows off his little tension-easing friend, "Happy." He says it has the silliest smile in Detroit. The judge told his wife, Jean, recently of the tensions of his courtroom, that he was bushed, and he was sorry he had snapped at a couple of attorneys. Jean bought the doll and the judge perched it on the corner of his bench. Now, when he feels troubled, he looks at the doll, and says, "I find myself smiling and right away everything gets better."

Quarter Of Russia's Bombs Not Equal To Alaska Quake

PASADENA (AP)— If 25 of the 100-megaton bombs Russia boasts she has were exploded all at once, the energy released would only just match the force of the first shock of the Alaskan earthquake which began last March 27, a scientist says.

That shock and the aftershocks moved more earth farther, both horizontally and vertically, than any other earthquake ever recorded, Dr. Frank Press, director of the California Institute of Technology's seismological laboratory, said Wednesday.

Total energy expended in all shocks of the Alaskan earthquake was 500,000 times the force of the Hiroshime atom bomb, Press said.

The initial shock, rated 8.3 on the Richter scale, released a fourth of that total, with another fourth spent in the aftershocks of the first 24 hours, he said.

In the 69-day period after the main shock, there were 12,000 jolts of 3.5 magnitude or greater Movement along the primary fault extended 500 miles horizontally and as deep as 120 miles, Press said. Some areas were lifted up as much as 50 feet and others dropped as much as seven feet, he added.

A 100-megaton bomb would be the equivalent of 100 million tons of TNT. The Hiroshima bomb was equal to 20,000 tons of TNT.

Lodge Is Gloomy On Viet Parleys

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge says he does not think the United States will participate in any international conference on South Viet Nam.

"To hold a conference now would serve no good purpose and would seriously undermine morale in South Viet Nam," Lodge told UCLA students Wednesday.

There already have been two conferences on Southeast Asia, said the former ambassador to South Viet Nam, and the Communists violated them "before the ink was dry."

"The minute the Communist onslaught ceases (in South Viet Nam), there can be peace," he said.

Glider Abandoned

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — After a 30-hour search, the Air Force abandoned its missing Polka Dot space glider to the sea. The hunt was called off late yesterday. Officials presumed the craft sank in the Atlantic, although intermittent signals from its radio beacon indicated it had been at least partially afloat for 20 hours.

Soviet Tug Ready To Peek At Navy Test

SAN DIEGO (AP)— The 140-foot Soviet tug Arban, which has steamed up and down the California coast for days, has taken up a position 32 miles off Oceanside, apparently to watch U.S. amphibious maneuvers.

Navy spokesman said yesterday:

"She's been dead in the water for eight hours at a point pretty close to the Camp Pendleton landing area... And she's got a perfect right to be there."

Navy ships are scheduled Monday to begin landing thousands of Marines in Exercise Silver Lance.

The destroyer escort USS Lowe, which has been shadowing the Arban, reportedly is continuing a close watch on the Russian vessel by radar.

The amphibious maneuvers, designed to give the Navy and Marine Corps practice in protecting small nations from aggressor forces, is being carried out at Camp Pendleton, north of San Diego. The exercise involves more than 60 ships and 50,000 men.

Navy ships leaving San Diego and Long Beach to come to the aid of the mythical country of Lancelot were attacked Wednesday by enemy submarines, both sides claiming victory.

Torpedo boats from Merlin, the aggressor nation, also attacked the ships but were driven off by carrier planes.

While the Navy task force gathers at sea, marines of the First division and the 13th Expeditionary Brigade boarded amphibious task force ships for departure today.

Postal Peep Hole Use Is Criticized

WASHINGTON (AP) — Heads of two groups of postal workers have urged a Senate judiciary subcommittee to take steps to eliminate observation galleries and peep holes from post offices.

The subcommittee is checking into possible invasion of privacy by the Post Office Department through operation of peep holes and mail covers.

Jerome J. Keating, president of the National Association of Letters Carriers, said yesterday that supervisors use the peep holes to watch postal employes and guard against mail theft.

He called them anachronistic, costly and injurious to employe morale, and said that most postal workers are trustworthy.

Winter Rampages East Of Rockies

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

A sprawling, wind-blown snowstorm piled five foot drifts through the center of the nation today. Snow and arctic temperatures knifed deep into the heart of Dixie while Texas tually isolated many central Illinois towns. Strong winds whipped snow three feet deep around Memphis, Tenn., closing all major highways out of the city.

The storm, described by the weather bureau as one of the worst of the season, has claimed at least 22 lives since it hooked out of the Northern Plains two days ago.

Heavy snow warnings remained in effect for lower Michigan, Indiana and northwest Ohio—with up to 7 inches of fresh snow expected.

South of the snow belt, heavy rain fell and temperatures dropped to near or below freezing. Asheville and Hickory, N.C., were hit with an inch of rain in six hours during the night.

Throughout Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama, temperatures fell 30 or 40 degrees when the icy front moved in.

Central Illinois was one of the hardest hit areas, with a snowfall of more than a foot.

Schools were closed in many areas through Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. Highways were impassable and cars were abandoned along roadways.

New Process Rids Milk Of Strontium 90

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A process that has proved capable of removing more than 90 per cent of radioactive Strontium from large quantities of milk is undergoing final tests, according to the Public Health Service.

Although the level of Strontium in milk now and in the foreseeable future is well within limits considered safe by the Federal Radiation Council, the removal system is being developed for use in event of a nuclear attack, the element is a by-product of nuclear explosions and in sufficient quantities could cause bone cancer and possibly leukemia.

The process involves filtering slightly acidified milk through columns of resin that mineral been charged with mineral salts similar to salts found in the milk. Positively charged radioactive Strontium then exchanges places with mineral elements in the resin.

A CHANGE IN PLANS

Mrs. Sam Cooke, widow of the rock 'n' roll singer, who was shot and killed last Dec. 4 in a Los Angeles motel, and Bobby Womack, 20, applied for a marriage license in Los Angeles yesterday. They were turned away because the would-be bridegroom, Cooke's guitarist for three years, did not have the consent of his parents or guardian. Mrs. Barbara Cooke, 29, had intended to wed immediately and travel to the East Coast. (UPI Telephoto)

City Attorney, Editor Clash Over Secret Meeting Rules

The city attorney of Fairfax and the city editor of the Independent-Journal disagreed last night on application of the Ralph M. Brown Act, California's open meeting law.

"You don't have to worry (about closed meetings) as long as you don't plan to come to any decision," Fairfax City Atty. Wallace S. Myers told the monthly meeting of the Marin Council of Mayors and councilmen at the Deer Park Villa in Fairfax.

The act says "all meetings of the legislative body of a local agency shall be open and public," and in no place applies this requirement only to meetings where decisions are reached, said I-J city editor Bryce W. Anderson.

The two were invited to address the Council of Mayors because of the recent furore over Fairfax's change to a city administrator government. The city administrator ordinance was introduced at a December city council meeting without previous discussion.

Myers said that came about because councilmen learned while at a League of California Cities convention that City Clerk Alice Leonesio was planning to retire (she leaves at the end of this week). On their return, the councilmen "asked Mrs. Leonesio to sit down with them at the city hall," he said. Two days later—on Oct. 19—Mayor Cornelis Van Vliet appointed Councilmen Robert R. Souza and George A. Pagni by telephone as a committee to get up a city manager ordinance. They selected the Novato city administrator ordinance as a model and asked Myers to draft one for Fairfax.

All this, claimed Meyers, was strictly legal under the Brown Act.

Myers based much of his argument on an appellate court decision in Adler vs. Culver City in 1960, in which the court held a dinner meeting of planning commissioners with a developer was not covered by the act.

Anderson read two opinions by the state attorney general holding that Brown Act amendments voted by the legislature in 1961 nullified the Adler vs. Culver City decision.

Myers said the attorney general "slightly disagrees with me" but "the attorney general is no better than any lawyer."

Anderson said this was true but "any city council that knowingly flies in the face of an attorney general's opinion is asking for it."

Prior to the speeches, the Council of Mayors unanimously elected City Councilman Neil R. Brixon of Larkspur to replace former Fairfax Mayor Van Vliet on the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission. Van Vliet resigned last week from the Fairfax council, the day after Richard J. Sumbardo was hired as Fairfax's first city administrator.

Sumbardo was present last night, although he will not start work until April 15.

Selection of a central cities member of the Human Rights Commission and of a San Rafael member of the Marin Rapid Transit Committee were postponed to the March meeting.

The council unanimously endorsed a Tiburon resolution that the U.S. Bureau of Mines Oceanographic Research Laboratory be kept at the former Tiburon Naval Net Depot.

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis advised councilmen of Southern Marin cities to look with skepticism on proposals by the Southern Pacific Co. to swap right-of-way for agreement on abandonment of Tiburon and San Rafael portions of Northwestern Pacific Railroad main line. Long experience with the company has shown that it acts only in its own interest, never the public's interest, McInnis declared.

Acting Mayor Frank L. Lawrence of Fairfax was host, with Mayor Gordon W. Strawbridge of Tiburon, president of the Council of Mayors, presiding. The county board of supervisors was represented by Byron W. Leydecker of the First District and Ernest N. Kettenhofen of the Second District.

Hospital Meeting Set

Kentfield Home Ransacked; $300 In Auto Parts Stolen

Burglar y of the home of Mrs. Hannah Catherine Bon, 39 Laurel Grove Avenue, Kentfield, resulted in loss of an undetermined amount of clothing and jewelry, sheriff's officers reported today.

Deputies said Mrs. Bon told them entry was between last Saturday and Tuesday. She said no forced entry was evident but the intruders ransacked the home.

James M. Berens of Oakland told officials his automobile repair shop at 20 Shoreline Highway, Manzanita, was entered last weekend by breaking a window, and $300 in auto parts stolen.

Burglars also broke a window of home of Clifford E. McClain, 166 Deepstone Drive, Marinwood, taking about $4 in coins in a toy bank. McClain told officers he discovered the burglary Monday.

James C. Powell, 113 Richardson Drive, Strawberry Manor, reported a window was pried on his automobile, parked at home over the weekend, and a $200 stereophonic unit stolen.

Willard Frederickson, foreman of Freeman Paving Co. of Palo Alto, reported a rental water pump, suction hose, and two 55-gallon drums of oil were taken from a construction site on Strawberry Point, also last weekend. He said value was $624.

Patte M. Little, 86 Brookmead Court, San Anselmo, told deputies a saddle and horse breastplate, total value of $150, were taken from a tackroom at 27 Legend Road, Sleepy Hollow, last Friday.

Cash of $100 was taken from the bedroom of Scott A. Murphy, 75 Alesio Drive, Greenbrae, during the past few days. He reported the loss yesterday. No forced entry was evident.

Theft of a $100 sign advertising apartment rentals was reported by Dr. Mario Pieri, 202 Kent Avenue, Kentfield. Dr. Pieri told officers the 250-pound sign was taken yesterday from his residence.

Water Line Erupts, So Does Feud

An old, leaky water line erupted today, re-opening a standing feud between two residents of Fifth Avenue in San Rafael and Marin Municipal Water District.

The line was shut off about 10 a.m., but before that the water gouged a ditch through the property at 2123 Fifth Avenue, according to the owner, Mrs. Walter M. Drabina.

Mrs. Drabina says the line breaks often. She thinks repairmen should move faster.

"Once they took three days to stop it," she said.

Her neighbor, James Reno of 2115 Fifth Avenue said the line breaks every six months.

Asst. Supt. Edward J. Walsh of the water district said the line is a scour line, used every four years or so when Forbes Hill reservoir is drained.

Mrs. Drabina said the trouble has been going on for 12 years.

Smog Parts Tax Help Bill Sent To Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly gave final approal today a bill that gives tax relief to auto parts distributors over-stocked with anti-smog devices.

The Senate already had approved the measure, which now goes to Gov. Brown. It contains an urgency clause and would take immediate effect.

Greyhound Toll Fares Lowered

Committees of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District today approved lowering of bus tolls from $1 per trip to 13 cents.

The finance committee and the commuter affairs committee, meeting jointly, took the action after getting word that the state Public Utilities Commission had dismissed Greyhound's application for commute rate increases.

Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato and William D. Hadeler of San Francisco are co-chairmen of the joint committee.

The bus toll reduction idea was conceived and pushed by bus tolls was contingent on Greyhound's withdrawing its application for a hike in commute fares.

Burglars Hit Home, Store In Mill Valley

A glass-cutting burglar broke into a Mill Valley home and stole $1,311 in recording equipment, and a burglar forced his way into Varney's Hardware Store and took $125 in cash and tools, police reported today.

Mrs. James F. Henthorne of 501 East Blithedale Avenue told police at 4:42 p.m. yesterday that a side door window was broken in the home of Vincent South at 25 Locke Lane. Mrs. Henthorne was moving into the home and the Souths were moving to a new san Anselmo home at 152 Oak Springs Drive.

Police said that a glass cutter had been used on the window. Taken were a tape recorder worth $500; tuner, $500; two microphones, $104, and tape reels, $207.

Varney's hardware at 57 Throckmorton Avenue was entered Tuesday night, apparently through a rear window. The burglar stole $15 in coins from the cash register, $25 in rolled coins from the office and $85 worth of tools, including wrenches, pliers, pocket knives and a $3.95 throwing dagger.

diplomatic pressures for a negotiated end to the fighting.

Guerrilla forces continued a series of harassing actions against government - protected hamlets in the Saigon suburbs Wednesday night, but a U. S. military spokesman reported today there were no casualties.

A Vietnamese general reported today that guerrilla forces stopped two buses carrying civilians 240 miles north of Saigon yesterday and massacred about 90 passengers in reprisal for U. S. bombing attacks against North Viet Nam.

The officer, Brig. Gen. Nguyen Huu Co, said the sole survivor of the atrocity was a 4-year-old girl who said the guerrillas sprayed the buses with machinegun fire and screamed: "Because the Vietnamese have died in North Viet Nam, now you must die."

Juvenile Alcohol Plan Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Juvenile drivers would get automatic 15 to 30-day license suspensions if convicted of possessing alcohol while driving under a bill introduced today by Assemblyman Phillip Soto, D-La Puente.

The bill would not affect juveniles accompanied by their parents or those driving liquor or beer trucks.

POLICY

yesterday that complete, immediate and unconditional U.S. withdrawal is Peking's price for negotiations.

U.S. officials give two conditions for any talks on Viet Nam: An end to attacks by the Communist Viet Cong and a cessation of subversion, infiltration and supply of the guerrillas from outside South Viet Nam.

U.S. SEEKS EDGE

The U.S. position appeared to be that, in the absence of real hopes for negotiations now, the anti-Communist position should be strengthened as much as possible with an eye toward talks sometime in the future.

This was underscored by the news from South Viet Nam that American-manned jet bombers had taken part in several raids on Viet Cong positions in the key central region of South Viet Nam.

RED RAIDS

As for economic aid, Washington authorities said the Saigon government must take the offensive if American economic support is to serve a useful purpose.

One aid official said some South Vietnamese village leaders — under threat of death from Communist guerrilla leaders — have been forced to share their U.S. aid with the Viet Cong. He cited an example of the Viet Cong leaving a receipt for goods seized from a village chieftain so he could account to aid authorities and not be accused of corruption.

In Congress, where there have been sharp differences over the past two weeks on the feasibility of negotiations, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield admitted that "Congress is deeply divided about the proper course for us to pursue in Viet Nam." For himself, the Montana Democrat said he favored giving Johnson "as much flexibility as possible."

Mansfield said his letters from home are running 25 to 1 against carrying the war to North Viet Nam and in favor of negotiations.

But an aide to House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said that 80 per cent of Ford's mail backs his position in support of administration policy and opposing any talks now.

Some Congress members reported receiving heavy mail on Viet Nam, while others said they were getting hardly any.

Second Man Arrested In Holdup Case

A second suspect in the $1,653 armed robbery of the Buckeye Restaurant near Sausalito last Dec. 20 is in custody at San Mateo County Jail, Marin County sheriff's officers said today.

Felony complaint charging Alexander J. Daukshas Jr., 24, with armed robbery was issued in Marin County on Jan. 20. Bail is $10,000.

The other suspect, J. D. Hall, 39, already is serving time in prison for armed robbery in San Mateo County, officers said.

Marco Melovich, Marin sheriff's inspector, said arrest of Daukshas Sunday in a San Francisco bar came partially as a result of information by Marin County officers of the suspect's associates.

Melovich said Daukshas likely will be prosecuted in San Mateo County before return to Marin County for trial.

He said Daukshas, whose criminal record started with commitment to California Youth Authority for a Daly City burglary Jan. 7, 1960, and who served state prison time on a San Francisco County conviction—also for burglary—on Nov. 8, 1962, allegedly was involved in a $500 robbery of a San Mateo bar on Feb. 14 and a $2,000 holdup in Daly City on Feb. 17.

ANOTHER ARREST IN LIBEL PROBE

Los Angeles Dist. Atty. Says Quartet Conspired To Damage Kuchel's Morals

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Four men have been ordered to enter pleas March 19 to charges of conspiracy to commit criminal libel against U.S. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.

Francis A. Capell, 57, Zarephath, N. J., former chief investigator for the Westchester County (N. Y.) sheriff's department and now publisher of the Herald of Freedom, an anti-communist publication, was arraigned in Superior Court yesterday and released on $1,000 bail.

Also free on $1,000 bail are three arraigned Feb. 18 following indictment by the Los Angeles County Grand Jury.

They are Norman H. Krause, 44, a Los Angeles police officer from 1947 to 1957; Jack D. Clemmons, 41, a Los Angeles police sergeant who resigned recently after 15 years service; John F. Fergus, 47, who recently resigned as a public relations man for Schick Razor Co.

All have issued statements saying they are innocent.

Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger said the indictment concerned a widely circulated affidavit signed by Krause that the senator, was involved in a morals offense 15 years ago. Younger said the allegations in the affidavit were false and malicious.

Kuchel, a Republican, asked for the investigation after he learned the affidavit, which he termed a "monstrous falsehood," was being circulated.

The conspiracy charge, a felony, carries a maximum penalty of three years in jail and a $5,000 fine upon conviction.

Jean Varda Granted Divorce —He Waited Seven Years

By ROSS DAVIS

Jean Varda, 71, happy and uncomplicated dean of Marin artists, waited seven years to see if his third bride would return to Sausalito.

She didn't, and today it took him only five minutes before Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court to gain an interlocutory decree of divorce on grounds of cruelty.

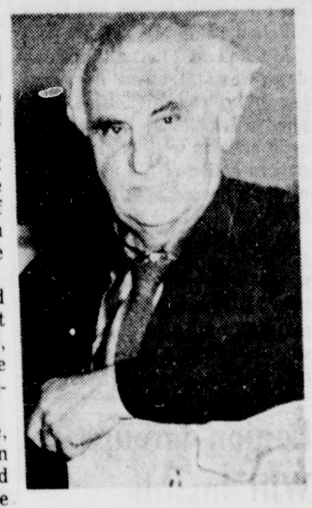
Furthermore, said the noted collagist and longtime ferryboat resident at Gate 5 in Marinship, three times is enough. "Three marriages is my quota," he declared.

He told newsmen his last wife, Chryssa, 34, whom he wed in Paris on Sept. 1, 1955, disliked being a boatwife and after three years of marriage departed to pursue a career of sculpturing.

She vowed she would be famous by the age of 30, he said, and was.

Varda, who lives aboard the Vallejo, said she considered California as "the provinces" and fled to New York City, which he hates as passionately as she did Marin County.

New York City, he said, "has a ferocious climate, ferocious people, everything is ferocious. No man born out of woman can survive New York."



JEAN VARDA
Three times is enough

But despite the difference in geography preferences of the couple—both born in Greece—Varda testified he loved his wife. "I was very, very hurt when she left," he said.

Varda, comfortably clad in houseslippers, red socks, and an old sportscoat with green elbow patches, said his first marriage was to Dorothy Stewart in London. His second, he recalled, was in Chicago, to a Virginia Barkley in 1941.

His collaborating witness was Mrs. Frances Anshen, former wife of the late architect, S. Robert Anshen of DeSilva Island, who was found dead last May 25 from a combination of alcohol and barbiturates.

She testified she has known Varda 20 years, that Chryssa never cared for living in California or being a housewife.

McInnis: Northgate No Threat To Downtown Area Merchants

Northgate Shopping Center is "not even momentarily a threat" to San Rafael's downtown business district, Mayor John F. McInnis said today.

Instead, the mayor said, the big shopping complex is "a fabulous opportunity for the whole community." He was discussing the impact of Northgate during the "Marin Sounding Board" program on radio station KTIM.

Irving Chapman, downtown property owner and owner of Chapman's Shoes on Fourth Street, said there would be a period of adjustment during which downtown San Rafael will have to "gracefully bend" under the impact of the new center.

The basis of the mayor's contention was that the new center would bring so many retail dollars from outside the county that San Rafael's downtown merchants should benefit rather than suffer.

But downtown San Rafael merchants will be hurt if they "sit on their hands," McInnis warned. Other participants in the program, Chapman, Jack Alvarado, executive secretary of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, and downtown property owner Francis Fogarty, seconded the mayor's warning.

"Weak storekeepers will fall by the wayside," Chapman said.

Fogarty listed five points where improvements in downtown San Rafael are needed to meet the impact of the new shopping center:

(1.) Adequate parking. (2.) Increased and flexible traffic flow. (3.) Balanced stock of merchandise at the "right price." (4.) Customer service. (5.) A modern and pleasing appearance.

A listener wanted to know why San Anselmo has free parking and San Rafael hasn't.

The mayor answered that the city has tried three times to get merchants to take the responsibility for parking costs, but they wouldn't.

As for appearances, the mayor said a mall area on downtown Fourth Street was being considered. Councilmen, city planning commissioners and key merchants will travel to Fresno next month to look at a mall arrangement in that city.

The program will be rebroadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Owen Plans Paper In Sausalito

Sally Stanford of Sausalito, San Francisco and Sonoma County announced today she plans soon to publish a newspaper called the Sausalito Sentinel.

Miss Stanford (Mrs. Marsha Owen), owner of Valhalla Inn in Sausalito, is already vice president of the Vacaville Sentinel, which was launched about two months ago.

In addition to "snooping," she said she plans to do a column in her Sausalito publication and will cover city meetings with a tape recorder. "I'll cover all of them—scheduled and unscheduled," she declared.

The Sausalito Sentinel, like the Vacaville weekly, will be a tabloid and will be edited by Dick Christian, former editor of the Marin News in Sausalito. Christian now is editor and publisher of the Vacaville paper.

The Sausalito paper will be incorporated under International Promotional Advisors Inc. and will probably have a shopping news companion publication, Miss Stanford said. It could be semi-weekly or daily, she added: "It depends on how we set it up."

The inn keeper said she is looking for a plant site in Sausalito and for presses. She is not interested in the Marin News, a Sausalito weekly, she said.

"This is my first time in newspaper business," said Miss Stanford, adding, "there has to be a first time for everything."

Net Depot Transfer Gaining

The former net depot on the Tiburon Peninsula is well on its way to being turned over to the Department of the Interior so that civilian underwater research can continue.

Department of Interior officials in Washington said today congressional committees had been notified of the impending transfer from the Navy.

The Navy will retain control of the main dock and the small building on it which houses electronic gear to test equipment aboard military ships in the bay.

The remainder of the base will go to the Department of the Interior, which is operating the marine mineral technology center of the Bureau of Mines and laboratories of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and Bureau of Commercial Fisheries.

John A. Carver, undersecretary of the interior, toured the facilities late yesterday with James K. Carr, general manager of the San Francisco Public Utilities Commission.

The men came from San Francisco on a hydrofoil boat which skimmed over the top of the water on "skis" at speeds up to 40 miles an hour. It is the prototype of a craft planned for commercial operation on the bay by FMC Corp.

Novato Trustee Forgives Helicopter's School Scare

The Army's explanation of why a helicopter landed on the Olive School playground in Novato last Thursday has been accepted by William H. Kirk, president of the old Novato Unified School District Board.

Kirk said yesterday he was told by Capt. William S. Chapman at a meeting of Army and school officials that the pilot had to make an emergency landing because the helicopter hit a bird.

Kirk said he will recommend to his board Monday night that the "incident be closed."

The touch-down that caused much concern occurred at 3:25 p.m. while more than 100 students were having a physical education class in the playground. The helicopter was later identified as an Army craft from the 40th Brigade at Fort Scott.

Kentfield Man Dies In Bridge Leap

Stanley R. Klopstock of Kentfield left a note asking forgiveness, then jumped off the midspan of the Golden Gate Bridge at 1:30 p.m. yesterday.

"Forgive me" he wrote to his wife and children. He left the note in his wallet, which was in the jacket he took off and left on the bridge sidewalk.

He had parked his car at the Vista Point parking area north of the bridge and walked to midspan.

Another walker, Robert E. Mulgannon of San Francisco, saw him as he took off his jacket and moved toward the bridge railing. Mulgannon yelled at him. But Klopstock leaped over the railing without a word.

The body was picked up by a Coast Guard boat and later identified at the San Francisco coroner's office by his brother, Curtis, of San Francisco.

Klopstock, 53, resided with his son Bruce, 18, at 11 Stetson Avenue, Kentfield. The son had left for naval training in San Diego yesterday morning.

Klopstock was employed as a management analyst at the Oakland Army Terminal.

His estranged wife, June, was living in Rohnert Park with their daughter, Clarisse, 15.

Thieves Break Into School's Snack Bar

Hungry thieves broke into the snack bar at Terra Linda High School and stole $22 worth of goodies, Sgt. Louis Foster of San Rafael police reported today.

Dixie School Board Reviews Budget Of $2,084,050

Dixie School District trustees last night had their first review of a preliminary budget for the next school year totaling $2,084,050 as compared to the current budget of $1,786,950.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis explained that most of the increase will result from the opening of a new school and an enrollment increase of approximately 450 pupils. But the budget also includes increases in Spanish teachers, nurses, music department, and remedial speech personnel, and two fulltime psychologists.

It also includes $35,000 to increase kindergarten teachers so they will teach only one class each.

The board also decided to acquire a school site of approximately 10 acres on a ridgetop on the Fagundes Ranch, south of Las Gallinas Avenue. Willis said the ridgetop site would cost about $200,000 less overall, including development, than a site adjacent to Las Gallinas Avenue which was under consideration.

The Dixie School District board also:

1. Awarded contract to Page Construction Co. of Novato for construction of the Dixie School in Upper Lucas Valley at $348,850.

2. Approved spending $9,910 for a National Defense Education Act foreign language laboratory.

3. Granted Asst. Supt. Joseph G. Goff leave of absence for two days each week during March, April and May without pay to study at University of California for a doctoral degree.

Marin Auditor Office Cited For Information

The Marin County auditor-controller's office was commended for its public information program at a recent meeting of the state Auditor-Controllers Assn., Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell reported yesterday.

Marin and Los Angeles counties were named as "ideal counties" in regard to furnishing information to the public regarding the county budget and taxes, Mitchell said.

Mitchell said that a tax breakdown was sent out with property tax bills, and his office compiled a booklet on tax rates by code area as well as giving taxpayers notice of the availability of the proposed and final county budgets.

Mitchell reported that J. Roy Holland, representing the California Taxpayer Assn., urged that auditor-controllers make tax rate estimates during every step of budget procedures, a practice that Mitchell follows.

Problem Of Unwed Mothers

OAKLAND (AP) — A sharp in crease in births to unwed mothers is posing problems in the San Francisco Bay area.

Saying Alameda County's illegitimate births have tripled in 10 years, County Health Officer Dr. James C. Malcolm urged yesterday that the county help finance a birth control program.

Dr. Malcolm said one out of every 10 births in the county is to an unwed mother.

Alameda County provides quarters for three clinics offering birth control information, pi and devices but only married mothers may apply. Dr. Malcolm recommended lifting the restrictions excluding unwed mothers.

In San Francisco, Monsignor James B. Flynn, director of the Catholic Social Service, said 252 unwed mothers sought help of the service last year, a 45 per cent increase over 1963.

Monsignor Flynn said the problem has become so acute in San Jose that a group home for unwed mothers has been started.

Coyote Creek Flood Control Project Nearly Completed

Lynn Ourso, superintendent for Freethy Construction Co. of El Cerrito, said today that his company plans to end work on the Coyote Creek flood control project tomorrow.

"We hope to be finished with paving of Flamingo Road and place cub and gutter today," he said.

Work on the 1.5 million dollar project began last July 15. It was scheduled to be completed in mid-December, was held up due to weather. Freethy Co. at peak periods had 70 employees working but at this time has about five. The company installed creek concrete lining, seven bridges, fence bordering the creek and access roads on each side of the creek from Richardson Bay to Ross Drive.

Need for the work was realized following damaging floods in the 1955 winter rains.

There are plans to do some drainage work and some fencing between the creek and some of the property purchased by the county, a county flood control district spokesman said today.

Downed Pilot Belittles Red Anti-Aircraft

NAHA, Okinawa :AP) — The pilot of a U.S. Air Force reconnaissance plane shot down over Laos in November said today he did not think the Communists had radar controlled anti-aircraft emplacements.

He said his unarmed RF101 Voodoo jet was probably hit by a 37-millimeter gun of World War II vintage.

Capt. Burton L. Laltz, 32, of Fort Morgan, Colo. is recuperating from a broken arm, leg and nose suffered when he bailed out over Laos Nov. 21.

Waltz called the chance of being hit one out of a thousand and declared "it just didn't happen to be my day."

He speculated that Red forces in Laos may be running short of ammunition and pointed out that on many reconnaissance flights U.S. pilots were not challenged by anti-aircraft emplacements.

Twice-Rejected Park Again Under Scrutiny

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Proposed state acquisition of Reynolds Redwood Flat in Mendocino County for develment of a 412-acre park was under consideration today by the Board of Forestry.

Parks and Recreation Director Charles DeTurk has suggested that Mendocino County use its share of last year's $150 million park and recreation bond issue to acquire the property.

The State Division of Parks and Beaches has twice rejected the property on the basis its forests are not up to the standard of existing state redwood parks.

The property is between Piercy and Leggett, about 200 miles north of San Francisco. It includes 100 acres of virgin redwoods, a lodge and 24 cabins.

Negro Bus Boycott Planned Is Selma Voting Struggle

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Negro leaders, trying to pump new life into their civil rights drive here, have called for a boycott of city buses in the lengthy campaign for voting power.

Plans for a bus boycott were announced last night after attorneys for the civil rights movement petitioned a federal judge in Mobile to strike down an antidemonstration order issued by a state court judge in Selma.

Canceling street demonstrations for the weekend, Negro leaders concentrated on mobilizing voter registration efforts in surrounding counties and getting a large number of applicants to turn out next Monday when the board of registrars meets here.

"We are trying to get our people to stay off the buses," said Amelia Boynton, a Negro widow who has played a leading role in the five-week-drive to register more Negro voters.

At a mass meeting last night attended by about 250 Negroes, Mrs. Boynton said that cars would be available to carry Negroes to their jobs.

U.S. Aide Pledges Harvest Workers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — While tentative moves are under way in Sacramento to probe California farm labor hiring, state congressmen in Washington say they've been assured of enough workers to harvest ripening crops.

These developments came yesterday as state and federal officials moved to meet what the state's $3 billion agriculture business regards as a critical shortage of field hands:

Democratic California congressmen said after meeting with U.S. Labor Secrtary W. Willard Wirtz that whatever foreign or domestic labor is required to harvest crops will be provided.

The Assembly Finance and Insurance Committee in Sacramento approved on a split voice vote a weakened Republican resolution ordering an investigation of farm labor policies in the State Employment Department. The Assembly also must approve the measure, and its fate was uncertain.

"We feel that California's agricultural needs will be met," Rep. John E. Moss, a Sacramento Democrat, told newsmen after meeting with Wirtz. The congressman and California Employment Director Albert Tieburg had appealed to Wirtz to authorize importing 17,500 Mexican braceros to help harvest seven crops by June.

Growers contend they've been doing all they can to get American workers, but those they land aren't very capable and they can't round up enough anyway. Labor unions and others retort that growers don't want to pay reasonable wages and that there is an ample supply of domestic farm workers.

Halt Sought To Heartless Deer Shooting

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assemblyman George Milias, R-Gilroy, has introduced a bill to tighten rules governing the shooting of deer and other game animals which cause property damage to ranchers.

Depredation permits would be limited to 14 days and the animals would have to be tagged as those taken by sports hunters. The law now requires that carcasses of animals killed under depredation permits be turned over to game wardens for distribution to public institutions.

Milias said yesterday "This technique of gut - shooting deer so they will leave a property owner's land to die in remote areas, thus relieving the depredation permit holder of the responsibility of bringing in the deer meat, is the main reason for this bill."

Mill Valley Dance

Mill Valley Youth Council members will hold a dance at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Municipal Golf Clubhouse to music of Little Henry and the Chord Lords. It is for high school age members only.

Unruh Wants End To 'Peace Wire' Uproar

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh hopes the issue is closed, but Young Republican groups are pressing ahead in a recall movement against three Assembly Democrats under fire for sending a telegram urging peace negotiations in Viet Nam.

The Los Angeles Democrat said yesterday "I hope the whole thing is at an end . . ."

Meanwhile, William J. Strain Jr., president of the San Francisco Young Republicans, said recall petitions will begin circulating this weekend against Democratic Assemblymen William F. Stanton of San Jose and Willie L. Brown Jr. and John L. Burton of San Francisco.

The three wired leaders in Britain and France asking that they use their "influence to halt any further escalation of the war in Viet Nam."

That action also drew a resolution from Senate President Pro Tem Hugh Burns, D-Fresno, and Senate Minority leader John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, asking for federal investigation of the telegram.

The measure asks the U. S. Department of Justice to determine if the telegram violated a 1799 law designed to prevent private American citizens from conducting relations with foreign governments.

State Officials Ponder Muzzling PUC Leader

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch will decide after a meeting with the California Public Utilities Commission whether to order PUC Chairman William M. Bennett to get out of a natural gas federal anti-trust suit in Utah.

Lynch, after conferring with Gov. Brown in Sacramento yesterday, said he would meet with the PUC in San Francisco today to determine further action in the matter.

Bennett of Kentfield has been appearing as what he calls a "special counsel" in a Salt Lake City federal action in which the government seeks to force El Paso Natural Gas Co. to yield its interest in Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp. The U.S. Supreme Court rejected the merger of the two firms in 1962, but Bennett charges a Utah federal court is considering a plan that still would leave Pacific Northwest a subsidiary of El Paso and eliminate competition, to the detriment of California natural gas buyers.

Bennett, before he was named by Brown to the commission, was its counsel and involved in pressing the first suit.

He said in San Francisco yesterday:

"I do not intend to be insubordinate but I am on this case and I will . . . continue . . . until I am removed by the attorney general. It is appalling to me that . . . I should be withdrawn from this case. It would be upon the unsupported allegations of the El Paso Natural Gas Co. that California should be cut off from all the information I have gathered about this case since 1957."

Other PUC commissioners have said, with Bennett's concurrence, that he is not authorized to act for them in the case. Brown urged him to drop outof the matter yesterday, feeling one commissioner shouldn't act independently of others in court actions.

SETBACK FOR SENATOR

'Urgent' Prep Athlete Bill Sent To Sidelines

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—Senate Minority Leader John F. McCarthy's urgency bill to liberalize participation in inter-school athletic contests suffered a setback in the State Senate yesterday.

McCarthy, R-San Rafael, wanted to rewrite the law that prevents youngsters living outside a school zone from taking part in inter-school sports. His sons, attending St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco, are unable to participate in inter-school tennis matches because of the residencet requirement.

His bill, however, got derailed and sent off to the education committee for further study.

Sen. Donald L. Grunsky, R-Watsonville, member of the education committee, said he sees no reason why the bill should be rushed through "just because your youngsters come home and grumble to their father, who happens to be a state senator."

Second Steel Vote Is Seen

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Informed labor sources predicted today there was a good chance that the government will order a new election in the fight for the presidency of the United Steel Workers Union.

The Labor Department is watching the tabulation of votes in the contest between President David J. McDonald and the union's secretary-treasurer, I. W. Abel.

Highly placed labor sources, here for the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting, said if the final outcome is within a few thousand votes, the Landrum-Griffin Act is likely to be invoked to order a new election.

ARCHBISHOP ARRIVES

Pope Invests Cardinals In New Ritual

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI invested 26 new cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today, conferring on them the red hats and rings of their princely office.

The cardinals included one American, Archbishop Lawrence Shehan of Baltimore, Md. The 27th prelate elevated by the Pope this week, Bishop Angel Herrera y Oria of Malaga, remained in Spain to receive his insignia from the Spanish chief of state, Generalissimo Franco, in accordance with tradition in that Catholic country.

The glittering public consistory in St. Peter's Basilica was attended by thousands, including presidents of African states, Prime Minister Sean Lemass of Ireland and 36 other cardinals. But the ceremony was drastically revised, reflecting the current moderniation of the Church.

Today's ceremony took the place of three separate consistories previously held for new cardinals. For the first time, it opened with a Mass celebrated jointly by the Pope and the 26 new cardinals. This was to emphasize the spiritual aspects of the ritual, in line with decrees of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Almost inevitably tribal wedding custom requires what African natives call lobola, or bridepayment. Before consenting to the engagement, the father of the prospective bride squeezes every possible cent out of the would-be-bridegroom.

Malcolm X Killer Known, Police Say

NEW YORK (AP) — Police say they know who was responsible for Malcolm X's assassination and hint a break in the investigation will come soon, perhaps today.

Despite phony bomb threats in Harlem, more than 7,000 persons have filed by the bier of the slain black nationalist leader in less than two days.

Malcolm X, 39, who broke with the Black Muslims 14 months ago and formed a rival sect, was shot down as he started to speak at a Manhattan rally Sunday. olice believe five persons were involved. One man is in custody. He is Talmadge Hayer, 22, a Negro from Paterson, N.J., charged with homicide.

In Chicago, a heavy patrol of police and his own bodyguards protected the 19-room home of Elijah Muhammad, head of the Black Muslims, who tomorrow open a three-day convention.

Chicago police checked reports that followers of Malcolm X were in that city to avenge his death. Muhammad has denied that Black Muslims were involved in the slaying.

In New York, Asst. Chief Inspector Joseph L. Coyle, in command of 50 detectives working on the case, said yesterday that police were on the "right track" toward solving the slaying.

He said this was because of "information detectives have dug up as to who may be responsible." He did not elaborate.

Merchant Lauds City's Manager

John R. Minton, owner of Creative Arts in Sausalito, who yesterday charged that the reconverted plaza parking lot will mean local residents might pay 35 cents to park to buy a 10-cent pencil, today said he believes City Mgr. Charles A. Brown has shown "a tremendous spirit of cooperation and an intelligent approach to the whole situation."

"I think," said Minton, "what we are going to have when the thing is completed is a parking plan that will be pleasing to everybody. We're with Brown."

The city parking lot is being converted from parking meters to attendant parking and is expected to be completed in two or three weeks.

Garbage Franchise Awarded

Mill Valley Refuse Service was awarded a franchise for collection of garbage within the area of the Strawberry Recreation District at a special district directors meeting last night.

Rates in the area will remain the same as in past years, when the company collected without a franchise, for at least the next three years under the contract, reported Mrs. Patricia Gowen, district secretary. The district will be paid 5 per cent of the gross fees collected for the 10-year contract, which has an option for renewal for another 10 years.

Directors voted 4-0 to approve the contract, turning down a proposal of Southern Marin Disposal Co., which offered lower rates but guaranteed them for only one year. Director C. G. Bush was absent.

Farming began in China about 2737 B.C.

COED SHOCKED

Mother Protests '1984' As Reading Assignment

OJAI (AP)—Linda Flanagan, 16, didn't like the book her advanced English class was assigned to read: George Orwell's "1984."

"She found it repellent," said her mother, Mrs. Alma Flanagan, who wrote the Nordhoff Union High School Board of Trustees:

"After reading as much as I could take of the book, I wondered how such a piece of literature could be part of the school's reading program."

She asked the trustees to remove the book from the schools.

Instead, school officials transferred Linda—from the advance class back into the regular 11th grade English class from which she had been selected earlier.

"She had done well on some tests, and she was especially chosen for the advanced course," said her mother. "But they were trying something different, and they had the students reading that terrible book. It's not moral. It's not up to standard. Such books are bad for all of our youth."

Linda now is reading "Final Verdict," by Adela Rogers St. John. "She likes it much better," said Mrs. Flanagan.

She still hopes the Board of Trustees will take action to remove the book. But Principal John Taylor said yesterday that the book—a fantasy novel of a totalitarian state—was popular with others in the class. He said it was rated as additional reading.

"The whole class is reading it," he said. He said if Mrs. Flanagan would pinpoint her dislikes he would refer her objections to the school's English department.

"The whole opening chapters were just terrible," said Mrs. Flanagan to a newsman. "There's one place where the man says to the girl, something like, 'I was so anxious to meet you I wanted to rape you or murder you or beat you with a rock.' Would you like your children reading such things?"

Principal Taylor said that last year Mrs. Flanagan had asked that Linda be transferred from a 10th grade English class—although the transfer wasn't made—because she objected to the book her daughter was assigned to read: John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men."

Woman Named To Youth Group

The Mill Valley Youth Activities Committee, recently reconstituted by the city council, last night selected Mrs. James E. Rutledge of 91 Longfellow Road as its seventh member. The other six were chosen by the council.

The committee said it will serve in advisory capacity to all Mill Valley youth groups to coordinate and support youth activity.

Officers are to be elected at a meeting next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in city hall.

REV. THOMAS I. KENNEDY
'Returns' to St. Raphael's

Rev. Kennedy Appointed To St. Raphael's

Rev. Thomas I. Kennedy, 49, has come to St. Raphael's Catholic Church, San Rafael, to take the job of administrator left vacant Jan. 14 by the death of Msgr. Daniel J. McAlister.

For Father Kennedy, it was almost like coming home.

Formerly principal of Marin Catholic High School, Father Kennedy lived at the St. Raphael rectory during much of his stay in Marin. In fact, his connections with San Rafael go back to 1937 while still a seminarian. He taught catechism during the summer at St. Raphael's in 1937-'39.

OFFERED MASS

Later as a priest, he offered Sunday Mass here in 1945 and 1946.

He lived at the rectory from 1947 to 1949 while attending summer sessions at Dominican College.

A native of San Francisco, Father Kennedy attended St. Paul's Grammar School and St. Ignatius High School in San Francisco, St. Joseph's College in Mountain View and St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park.

He was ordained in St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco June 7, 1941.

PASTOR POSTS

He served as assistant pastor at St. Emydius Church in San Francisco until 1943, assistant pastor at St. Mary's Cathedral until 1944, instructor at Serra High School, San Mateo, until 1949, assistant principal at Marin Catholic High until 1952 when he became principal.

In 1961 he became pastor of St. Denis' Church, Menlo Park, where he served until his transfer to St. Raphael's Tuesday.

Also coming to St. Raphael's Tuesday was Rev. David Walsh, a native of Oakland and a graduate of St. Joseph's College and St. Patrick's Seminary. He replaces Rev. John C. Petroni as assistant pastor. Father Petroni was transferred to St. Peter's Church in San Francisco.

Belli Predicts No Execution

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jack Ruby "will never be executed" for the murder of presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, predicts Ruby's former defense attorney, Melvin Belli of San Francisco.

Belli's comment came at a news conference yesterday after the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals postponed indefinitely an appeal hearing for Ruby, under sentence of death for slaying Oswald.

Belli said Ruby "will be judged insane and sent to an institution for the rest of his life. He will never be executed."

Completes Training

Navy Seaman Recruit Richard A. Whitlock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Whitlock of 1359 Monte Maria Avenue, Novato, has completed basic training at the Naval Training Center at San Diego.

Two Brothers Found Guilty Of Contributing Charge

Two brothers, arrested Sunday after a reported assault on a Negro youth in Larkspur, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Municipal Court to contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Battery counts against the pair were dismissed with the guilty pleas to the other charge by Michael Lee Christian, 18, Daly City, and Bernard L. Christian Jr., 22, of 19 Acacia Road, Fairfax.

Sentencing will be March 23.

The defendants and two companions, James A. Gill, 18, San Francisco, and Roberta M. Brown, 20, of 70A Elm Avenue, San Anselmo, were arrested by Corte Madera police after the Negro, Donald R. Hurd, 16, of 1 Cane Court, reported he was jumped in Larkspur by a carload of white youths.

He told officers the group fled when his sister, Narvie, 19, ran for aid. In the white youths' car when halted were the 15-year-old Daly City girls. The latter were taken to juvenile hall and the contributing charges filed against the brothers.

No complaints were filed against Gill and Roberta Brown, according to the district attorney's office.

Mountain Play Needs Men For Gold Rush Story

"Rough an' Ready," the 1965 Mountain Play, needs men, according to author and director Dan Totheroh.

"After a fairly good turnout last night," said the playwright today, "we still need a lot of mature men for roles as miners in the story of California gold rush days."

Also needed, said Totheroh, are instrumentalists who can play violin, banjo or harmonica and folk singers. Musicians can be any age, he noted.

Further readings for all parts will be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. at Old Mill School on Throckmorton Avenue in Mill Valley. The Mountain play will be staged on May 16 and 23.

PARK BOARD PUTS STAMP ON PLAN

Asks More Stress On Chileno Valley, Public Cooperation To Save China Camp

The Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission last night came up with some recommendations to beef up the master plan for parks, recreation and open space.

Commissioners urged early approval of the plan but noted "There are a number of instances where we feel further elaboration or emphasis should be given to various points."

After a two-and-on-half hour special session, the commission compiled a list of recommendations to be submitted to the county planning commission, which will have a hearing on the plan Monday.

They agreed that the Chileno Valley section, where full scale recreational development is proposed, is one of the most important parts of the plan and should be of multi-county interest.

No decision on relative merits of the Chileno Valley and Walker Creek proposals should be made until complete information, including engineering data, is available, they agreed.

When either plan is adopted, the county should lead a drive for cooperative effort with Sonoma County, the commission said.

The Chileno Creek valley lies at the Marin-Sonoma County line and could provide a recreational area for both counties.

Commissioners cited China Camp as a prime example of a recreational area that could be developed cooperatively by the county and adjacent cities. There is a threat the public may be excluded from China Camp and people should be informed of the recreation potential of the area, commissioners said.

Among other recommendations were these:

Planning should be accelerated for greater public use of the area south and west of Duxbury Point, from Bolinas to the Point Reyes National Seashore.

The section of the plan covering wildlife preservation should include maintaining open water space in the tidelands from Gallinas Creek to Corte Madera Creek.

Portions of the plan concerning Muir Beach should more clearly reflect the plans of the state in that area.

Plans in process for development of Bolinas Harbor should be consolidated and made a part of the plan.

Consideration should be given to development of a park along Corte Madera Creek in conjunction with the Corte Madera flood control project.

Consideration be given to the commission's recommendation regarding a marina green, shoreline promenade and preservation of open waters aspect of Richardson Bay as shown in the Richardson Bay master plan.

Commissioners said when there is private development of recreational facilities, there should be some guarantee that public use will be perpetual.

The commission strongly endorsed the plans for cycling, hiking and fishing trails.

In a general statement, the commission urged the county to consider purchasing surplus federal land for recreation areas.

Commissioner Adele J. Alpers was absent.

In 1781 a California townsite bore the name El Pueblo do Nuestra Senora La Reina de Los Angeles de porciuncula (Town of Our Lady the Queen of the Angels of Prociuncula). Over the years the name was shortened to Los Angeles.

Corte Madera Stores Denied Park Access

The Corte Madera Park and Recreation Commission last night decided Park Madera shopping center customers should not be able to leave the center parking lot through the town park.

Commissioners suggested that if another exit must be found, other than the single one onto Tamalpais Drive, a bridge across a drainage ditch east of the center would have to be built.

Granting an easement across the park would be giving a privilege to a private party, the commission ruled.

The commission recommended limited daytime use for the patio area near the recreation center for organized activities such as crafts and story hours.

Novato Fire Board Buys San Marin Firehouse Site

The Novato Fire District board last night authorized purchase of two lots in San Marin as a site for a fire station.

The district will pay $17,136 for two 70-by-105 foot lots at San Marin and San Ramon drives, owned by Sunset International Petroleum Corp.

The board and Fire Chief George Cavallero will meet next Tuesday with the architects Gromme and Priestley of San Rafael to plan the new fire station.

Chief George Cavallero reported that leveling work would start today on the fire station site on Atherton Avenue near School Lane.

Board members and some of the firemen will tour the Bay Area on March 10 to inspect aerial trucks prior to drawing up specifications for a new aerial truck for Novato.

Home Haircuts Are On Increase

ATLANTA (AP)—The buyer for the notions section of a big department store says the sale of hair clippers has risen 500 per cent in the past two years. The reason: higher barbershop prices.

The buyer reported one store executive's wife cuts the hair of her four boys and sometimes takes a whack at her husband.

Bobby Baker Probe Seems Near End

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The long-running Bobby Baker inquiry appeared near an end today though Senate investigators still must hear from the FBI on one aspect of the case.

Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., of the Senate Rules Committee called another meeting of the panel for Tuesday. It was understood the session would be devoted to an FBI report the committee has requested but not yet received.

The report deals with testimony given the committee in closed session by insurance agent Don B. Reynolds, one of the chief accusers in the affair. The committee asked the FBI to check into Reynolds' allegations. What these particular allegations were has never been made public.

Chow dogs were used for hunting in the Orient.

Academic Training Rule Is Defended

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Thomas .W Braden, president of the State Board of Education, says California's gains would be "betrayed" if academic training requirements for public school teachers are abolished.

Dr. Max Rafferty, the State struction, had called for an end to the requirements.

The requirements are part of 1961 Fisher Law, which says that, among other things, teachers must have college majors or minors in an academic subject.

Rafferty proposed that teachers be allowed to major or minor in any, subject taught in the schools, academic nor not.

Barden replied, "the academic subjects—science, social science, humanities, mathematics are fine arts—are the basic subjects. They have always been the basic subjects and we cannot upgrade or downgrade them according to Dr. Rafferty's views of how we're getting along with Russia."

Rafferty had said the requirements could be relaxed because "pressures of the cold war" had relaxed.

Braden said abandonment of the present requirements would be a "betrayal of the victory for excellence in education which the people of California won four years ago."

Larkspur Chamber Dinner Is Slated

Larkspur Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual dinner and general membership meeting at 6:30 p.m. today at the Edgewater Inn in Corte Madera.

The chamber will install Kenneth Anderson for another term as president, Harlan Barry as vice president, Maybelle Culpepper as secretary, and Charles T. Hunter as treasurer.

Bonn Angry Over Nasser Link To Reds

CAIRO (AP) — President Nasser heaped more honors last night on visiting East German President Walter Ulbricht, including Egypt's highest decoration, the Collar of the Nile.

Ulbricht's red-carpet reception in Egypt brought a statement from West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard that he was standing by his decision to cut off economic aid to the United Arab Republic in reprisal.

Erhard and his Cabinet were considering political reprisals, which could mean a diplomatic break with Egypt.

Nasser told a banquet honoring Ulbricht that in relations with other countries, "We are not ready to accept threats, nor do we endure any checks to our freedom of policy."

He told Ulbricht: "We have always tried, and still are trying, to preserve sound and strong relations with the German nation along both sides of the artificial division line."

Soviet U.N. Envoy Says U.S. Vote Ban Attempt Failed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko says the United States has failed in its fight to strip the Soviet Union and 12 other financially delinquent nations of their General Assembly votes.

"Such a policy of provocations has failed at the 19th session of the General Assembly," Fedorenko said yesterday.

Fedorneko said the penalty question became a dead issue when the U.S. delegation agreed to a roll call in the closing hours of the General Assembly without challenging the voting rights of the Soviet Union and the 12 others that are two years behind in their financial assessments.

When U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson agreed to the ballot which defeated Albania's attempt to force a showdown over peacekeeping dues, he said the move was procedural and did not affect the U.S. demand for voting penalties.

Fedorenko paused when asked if the Soviet Unon would have quit the U.N. — as threatened — if the voting penalty had been enforced.

"In such a case the Soviet Union would have to reconsider its attitude toward the United Nations organization," he said.

"We must emphasize as strongly as possible that the attempts to go ahead with the course of provocations followed by the United States and some of its supporters pave the way to the breakup of the United Nations," he declared.

Water Filtration Device Approved

Eimco-Process Engineers, Inc., was given the go-ahead yesterday by Marin Municipal Water District directors to install an experimental water filtration device at the San Geronimo water treatment plant.

District Mgr. William R. Seeger described the process as revolutionary, saying it would make automatic processes which now must be done by hand. The research firm will pay all costs for the installation of the pilot plant.

Seeger reviewed district revenue for the last six months of 1964, showing a 22 per cent increase in gross revenue compared to the previous year, with a total of $1,624,286, up $112,171.

However, net revenue was up only about 9 per cent, or $49,301, to $569,785, because of increased operating costs, mainly pumping costs during the long hot summer, he said.

Seeger said rainfall this season in the district has been 152 per cent of average. Storage has been 136 per cent of average.

The Marin Municipal Water District board also:

1. Approved purchase of an air compressor for the Marin Bay pressure system from Gardner-Denver Co., San Francisco, for $444, the lower of two bids.
2. Called for bids on the annual supply of steel pipe, a total of 37,500 feet of various sizes, expected to cost about $111,220.
3. Called for bids March 10 for installing 2,400 feet of 12¾-inch pipe from Third Street to Du Bois Street along Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael. The pipe will replace an eight-inch line which must be removed for highway work. The state will pay 45 per cent of the cost, estimated at $25,000.
4. Approved fishing permits for 1965 for district reservoirs except Phoenix Lake. Fishing will be allowed after purchase of a $3 permit every day but Sunday on all reservoirs except Nicasio Reservoir, where fishing will be allowed every day.
5. Appointed Neil Brodsgar as appraiser for a 60-by-80 foot tank site on San Anselmo Ridge between Sleepy Hollow and Terra Linda.

State Lists Low Bid For Tiburon Highway

Brown-Ely Co. of San Rafael was the low bidder at $469,930 for grading and paving on Tiburon Boulevard from Blackfield Drive to a point just beyond Reed Ranch Road.

In announcing the bid opening today, the State Division of Highways said grading and paving is called for on eight-tenths of a mile, grading on four-tenths of a mile and slope protection along Richardson Bay for seven-tenths of a mile.

DOGS PICKED UP AFTER BOY BITTEN

Humane society officers yesterday picked up a "handful" of dogs that play in Belvedere Park.

Among them, they believe they have the dog which on Monday bit John Doughty, 15, of 54 Alcatraz Avenue, Belvedere, as he rode his bicycle near Belvedere School. The youth was to go to Humane Society headquarters in San Rafael this afternoon to attempt to identify the dog.

Humane Society officials and police still were looking for a terrier type dog which on Tuesday bit 3-year-old Craig Patterson of Belvedere as he swung on a swing in the Park.

Kentfield Girl, 7, Stopped By Man

A 7-year-old Kentfield girl returning home from Wolfe Grade reported a man in a parked car halted her, then exposed himself.

Sheriff's officers said her father, who notified them, quoted the daughter as describing the man as about 35, weighing 180 pounds, and light brown-haired.

Architect To Begin On Red Hill School

Architect Martin Rosse of San Francisco last night received authorization from the San Anselmo School District board to do about $5,000 worth of preliminary work on the Red Hill School site, so that if bonds are approved by voters April 20, the building can be completed by September, 1966.

A $700,000 bond issue will be on the ballot for April 20, the same day as a unification election for all districts in the area of Tamalpais High School District.

The board set an adjourned meeting with the architect for 8 p.m. Wednesday at Isabel Cook School.

Action was again delayed, this time indefinitely, on a request by the Sausalito School District board for endorsement of a resolution asking state funds for preschool and compensatory education programs.

Bridge Rebuilding Cash Earmarked

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Commission Wednesday allocated $885,000 to replace two bridges ruined by the December floods in Humboldt and Plumas counties.

The Humboldt County project involved constructing a four-lane divided bridge and approaches on U.S. 101 at Eel River near Scotia at a cost of $2.25 million.

The Plumas County project involved constructing a four-lane bridge and approaches on Route 36 at the North Fork of the Feather River at Chester. Estimated cost was $190,000.

'Greatest Party' For Matts Perry

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Friends of Matthew J. Perry closed the Alta Mira Hotel last night to the public. People kissed. The strolling Ernesto Bagnasco Italian Street Singers struck up their band. Master of ceremonies Ernie Smith described the event as "the greatest party in the history of Sausalito."

Perry, retiring fire chief, was the honored man, and 400 filled the hotel's dining rooms to tell him so.

The chief will retire at the weekend following 38 years as a paid fireman, 20 years of this time as chief, and two years as a volunteer. The total of 40 years was expressed in frosting on top of 400 ice cream cakes.

Former sportscaster Smith, a longtime Sausalito resident who now lives in Glen Ellen, recalled that when Matts joined the fire department, "Calvin Coolidge was president . . . There was one apartment house in Sausalito called 'The Dirty Shame' . . . Wolfback Ridge was called the Hog's Back. The Sea Spray and Jukich's were the only two restaurants. South School was on North Street and Bridgeway was Water Street."

Rev. Henry O'Flynn, pastor of Star of the Sea Church, gave Perry his blessing and said, "we have been privileged to have such a wonderful chief."

"If it wasn't for the men that was under me to put the fires out I wouldn't be worth a damn," said Perry, who stood on a chair and addressed the crowd.

The audience applauded as Perry named firemen Ralph K. (Swede) Pedersen, Harold Cardwell, Robert Arden, Max Robertson, Leonard Jukich, Frank Christ, Albert J. Jones, Robert Nelson, Edward Shiflett and Louis Piver.

Perry introduced his wife, Toots; his brother, Fritz, and in-laws and cousins.

Mayor Jan Paul Dyk brought word, which he said probably would be fitting for all present, from his wife who is in a hospital. She said, "Give Matts my love."

Dyk presented Perry with a large bronze plaque which Dyk said is to be installed at the entrance of the new fire station on Central Avenue, the station being an addition for which Perry had long campaigned.

A gift which the bulk of the well-wishers had contributed to had not yet been purchased but it will be forthcoming, said Smith.

Perry received from Mrs. Marsha Owen (Sally Stanford) a silver tray, two inscribed champagne buckets, a dozen champagne glasses from France and two magnums of champagne.

Fire chiefs were present from Belvedere, Mill Valley, Alto, Oakland, Piedmont and Pittsburg. Many public officials paid tribute to Perry.

Juanita Musson, former owner of Juanita's Galley at Waldo Point, came from Sonoma County carrying a red fire engine under her arm for Perry.

Novato Setting Up Park Foundation

A non-profit foundation for acquiring parks for Novato is to be organized at a public meeting at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Novato Community House.

A temporary committee has been set up to organize the foundation. Fred W. Binnewies of 5 Tyler Street, is temporary chairman, with William J. Keener of the Novato parks and recreation commission and County Supervisor William Gnoss as other members.

The proposed foundation would be set up to accept gifts of land or cash for the city, Binnewies said.

Guest speaker at the organizational meeting will be Joel T. Gustafson, president of the Point Reyes Foundation.

Double Feature Auto Accidents

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — State Patrolman Bobby Miller answered a call at 6:45 p.m. one day recently.

He found a small sports car turned over alongside a country road with the driver, Don Brown, 21, of the Whitehouse community, unhurt. Brown said he had swerved the diminutive vehicle to miss hitting a car and turned over.

The patrolman drove Brown home. At 7:50 o'clock the same night, Miller got another call and found a compact car upside down on another rural road. Beside it was Brown, who said he had flipped his sister's car to avoid an accident. Brown, unhurt a second time, was again taken home by the patrolman.

She'll Study More

WYOMING, Mich. (AP) — Mrs. Rosena Kremers, 56, was taking her driver's test. Patrolman George Isler, the testing officer, said she put her car into drive instead of reverse and it jumped a concrete bumper and hit the police station. Damage was slight. Isler said Mrs. Kremers' learning permit was renewed for two months.

SHADES OF THE '30S

With the publicity hoopla reminiscent of the motion picture era of the 1930s, actress Carol Baker posed yesterday with two white wolfhounds, dressed for her role as the late Jean Harlow in the film, "Harlow." The event signalled the start of production on the film portraying the life of the star who died in 1936. (UPI Telephoto)

Civic Affairs Group Backs Increase In Supervisors

Should Marin County have more than five supervisors, perhaps seven, maybe even nine?

Directors of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs think it would be a good idea to have more on the board.

Meeting at the Civic Center last night, directors agreed they would not back a charter form of government for the county now, but would seek legislation allowing an increase in the number of supervisors to seven or even nine.

Margaret Azevedo, chairman of the council, explained this was a switch from a few months ago when the council proposed formation of a board of freeholders to start charter studies.

"We were going along with the Marin Federation of Improvement Clubs then," Mrs. Azevedo said. "There have been some second thoughts since."

Directors also authorized letters to Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, and State Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, urging them to back Senate Bill 309 which would create a San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission to study bay fill.

Ukiah Sell Out Gas Heat Utility

UKIAH (AP) — The City of Ukiah is $725,000 richer today and, by popular demand, out of the gas heating business.

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. presented the Ukiah City Council with a $725,000 check Wednesday night in purchase of the city's propane gas system.

PG&E plans to bring natural gas to Ukiah by fall of 1966. Ukiah citizens approved the transfer overwhelmingly in a recently election.

Nat King Cole's Will Published

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Nat King Cole's will, filed yesterday for probate, bequeathed $5,000 to his father, who died before him; $13,000 to his brothers, nephews, sister and niece, and the remainder to his widow and their five children.

The will was dated Feb. 7, 1963.

Cole's father died in Chicago two weeks before the singer's death from lung cancer Feb. 15. Cole was 45.

No estimate on the size of the estate was made.

Students To Tell Of Their Visit To State Capitol

Eighth grade students at Henry C. Hall School will appear before the Larkspur School District board at its meeting at 8 p.m. today in Larkspur-Corte Madera School to tell of their trip to Sacramento and conference with State Sen. John F. McCarthy on Feb. 15.

The students and teacher Roy Gustafson saw the State Legislature in session and discussed Senate reapportionment with McCarthy. There was also a side trip to Sutter's Fort.

The board will hear a report from San Clemente School Principal Robert Johnson on changes in the National Defense Education Act, which may make funds available for a consultant's service for an increased student testing program.

Dixie Decides For Vote Delay

Dixie School District trustees decided last night not to seek legislation that would clear the way for an early vote on San Rafael-Dixie unification.

Supt. Dennie B. Willis said this decision was reached because there was agreement by Dixie and San Rafael board members Feb. 16 that setting of an election date be postponed until an opinion was received from the attorney general as to whether the unification plan approved by the state is legal.

The plan approved calls for a seven-member district board. The San Rafael city charter requires a five-member board of education. There is a question as to whether the charter requirement prevails.

College Runoff Election Set Because Of Single Vote

Jerry Johnson of Lagunitas missed by one vote clinching the election as sophomore men's representative yesterday in class elections at College of Marin.

He was given 137 votes by his classmates, compared to 66 for his opponent on the ballot, Bruce Ketron of San Anselmo. But write-ins for a scattering of others added up to 72, thus robbing Johnson of a clear majority.

A run-off between Johnson and Ketron, with no write-ins, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday.

Unopposed Velda Hampton of Mill Valley gained 146 votes for sophomore women's representative.

For the freshman class, John Pecora, San Rafael, with 164 votes, beat Robert Rosenberg, Corte Madera, who had 127, for men's representative. Laura (Jody) Angel, 168 votes, defeated Barbara Corona, 109, for women's representative. Both are from San Rafael.

1,500 Respond To Questions On Youth Activities

The youth committee of the Marin Youth Council last night assembled approximately 1,500 responses to its survey on youth activities, both at school and at work.

The committee survey covering high school, junior high school and elementary students was conducted by committee members representing high schools throughout Marin.

Committee members will tabulate the findings and present a report to the council next Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Civic Center, said Ralph D. Giovanniello, council co-chairman.

The survey included questions on the type of school activity students are involved in and the type they would like to engage in. There also were questions about summer employment and the opportunities for young persons to work during the summer.

Flying Brick Breaks Plate Glass Window

A flying brick broke a plate glass window at Bellach Furniture Co. on Francisco Boulevard in San Rafael last midnight and damaged furniture inside, Jerome A. Bellach reported to police today. Total damage estimate is $500.

Patrolman J. A. Loane said it appeared to be act of vandalism rather than a burglary attempt.

FOURTH BIKE STOLEN IN THREE MONTHS

Mrs. Cleo Hendricks of 250 Marlin Avenue, Mill Valley, complained today that the fourth bicycle in three months had been stolen from her children.

Worst of all, this one was stolen from just outside the police station door.

Mrs. Hendricks said a bike belonging to her son Rock was stolen twice from the downtown area. A bike belonging to her 6-year-old son was stolen from the family garage.

Yesterday Rock rode his bicycle to Sequoia Theater, left it outside the police station, locking the wheel. When the show let out, it was gone.

Hospital Defended

SACRAMENTO (UPI)— Mental Hygiene Director James V. Lowry today disagreed with legislative analyst A. Alan Post's recommendation to close the Modesto State Hospital. Lowry said closing the facility is no solution but a far better plan, he added, would be to build a modern hospital in Modesto.

Arson Hinted In Fire At Lagunitas Cottage

Arson was hinted today in a fire which destroyed the weekend cottage of a University of California professor at Lagunitas yesterday.

There was no gas or electricity service to the house, said county Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, and it had not been occupied since Feb. 14. The fire department is working with the sheriff's department on the case, he said.

The fire department received reports of smoke in the area of the house on Lucia Lane, but by the time firemen pinpointed its location at about 11 a.m., the blaze had already burned through the roof of the three-room building and ignited a nearby fir tree.

Chief Bloom valued the home and its contents at $5,000. It was owned by Prof. and Mrs. Paul Ivory of Berkeley. All that was left standing was a wall and the frame of the house.

Police Say Adult Purchased Boys' Stolen Liquor

Preliminary hearing for Frank H. Treantefeller, of 30 Poloma Drive, Corte Madera, on charge of receiving stolen vodka from two Sausalito teen-agers will be held March 10 at 1:30 p.m. in Marin Municipal Court.

Treantefeller, a coffee shop operator, was arrested by Sausalito police at his home. They said he admitted buying a case of 12 bottles of vodka from two boys for $30.

The vodka was stolen by the boys, 16 and 15 years old, in one of a series of 11 house burglaries, Sausalito police said. The boys have been turned over to juvenile authorities.

Bank System Generally Is Sound

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—The recent rash of bank failures across the country has touched off several congressional investigations, but it doesn't mean that your money isn't safe.

Supervisory officials credit the dozen or so closings over the last 12 months to an excessive desire for growth and poor bank management at a time when the highest skills are needed. The banking system as a whole is sound, however, nothing like the collapse of the early thirties is even a remote possibility.

Bank failures are only slightly more numerous today than they have been at any time since the Bank Holiday of 1933. There has always been a handful of institutions in some kind of trouble. But lately the causes have been different and the amounts lost have been larger.

It used to be that slow horses and fast women were the main reasons for a bank's collapse. And the sums involved rarely exceeded $200,000 or $300,000. So only small banks went broke.

But these days banks find themselves caught in a cost-price squeeze that has some of its roots in the U.S. balance of payments problems.

On one hand, the government is keeping short-term interest rates high to prevent money from moving abroad in search of better returns. This shows up most clearly in the rate the treasury pays on 90-day borrowings—now close to 4 per cent. But it also pulls up the rate banks must pay on the savings deposits of individuals and business.

On the other hand the rate of interest that banks can charge is being held down by official operations and the fact that there's so much cash around seeking investment. Excess supply always reduces price—and interest is the price of money.

The temptation, of course, is to try to fatten the difference between "cost" and "selling price." How? By making loans to hard-pressed businessmen who are willing to pay a higher-than-going rate. The risks, though, are correspondingly large.

Some banks have also been paying premiums through brokers to induce corporations and labor unions to deposit large sums for specific periods of time. These are secured by so-called certificates of deposit—CD's the bankers call them. Frequently, the funds are "hot money"—not genuine savings but money that will pull out when the time runs out and fields look greener elsewhere.

Mart Shows Gain In Active Trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock marked closed irregularly higher today in active trading.

Gains of fractions to a point or more among key stocks appeared to outweigh losers.

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines went through some gyrations but held a gain of about 2 points.

Control Data and Baltimore & Ohio also rose about 2 each.

IBM tacked on 5. Up about a point were Anaconda and Westinghouse Electric.

General Electric rose more than a point.

Xerox slumped more than 2; Polaroid a point; U.S. Steel a fraction.

Volume for the day was estimated at 6.8 million shares compared with 7.16 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

Gains of fractions to a point and more among key stocks dominated the list. Quite a few stocks took losses or were unchanged.

The Dow Jones industrial average pieced the "900" level again, after retreating from it some weeks ago.

Gains of more than a point were scored by blue chips such as General Electric, Westinghouse Electric and Anaconda.

Also, up around a point or better were Western Union, Control Data, American Airlines and Air Reduction.

Airlines were up as a group. Steels were irregularly lower. Motors were narrowly mixed.

Xerox slumped almost 3 points, Polaroid 1. IBM spurted 3.

KLM, up 4, was a big feature in the airlines on the basis of expanded estimates of profits.

Deere lost about 2 and Jonathan Logan more than a point.

Prices advanced in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate and U.S. government bonds showed little trend.

A lock of Napoleon's hair sold recently for $1,060.

Rakestraw Taking Over Market In Loch Lomond; Boat Clinic Set

New owner of Gary's Market in the Loch Lomond Shopping Center, San Rafael is William Rakestraw, who is moving to Marin County from the Peninsula. He also owns Rakestraw's Market in San Mateo and Kuito's Market in Saratoga.

It is quite likely that the name of the Loch Lomond store will be changed to Rakestraw's Market within a few weeks.

New store manager here is Ernest Potts, who was floor manager at Petrini's in Greenbrae. Prior to that he was with Jolly Markets and Simi's. New meat manager is Edwin Borello, formerly head of the meat department at Bon Air Super in Greenbrae.

Potts said not many changes in store operation are contemplated, except that many prices will be dropped.

SAN RAFAEL yacht broker William Muggenthaler has been reappointed musical director for Matson Navigation Co. (it's his eighth year) in charge of all music for both Matson and Oceanic Navigation Co.

DOES YOUR BOAT need repainting? It's that time of year when, if you are not taking it out on a cruise you're either painting the deck or have it on a rack in drydock, redecorating the hull.

Saturday, Western Boat Shop, 101 Third Street, San Rafael, in conjunction with Valspar Products, is having an all - day demonstration of boat painting. Factory representative William Cox from Santa Rosa will be there from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. with a miniature boat, demonstrating all kinds of marine varnishes and paints and how to apply them, and answering questions.

CARL G. BROWN JR. of Ross, chairman of California Casualty and Life Insurance Co., reports that the company has received permission from the State Insurance Department to complete its organization, and that it will be operative in about another month.

The new company has virtually the same management as its affiliate, California Casualty Indemnity Exchange. Wagner d'Alessio of Ross is president. Attanrey John W. Dinkelspiel of Kentfield is a director.

HAROLD B. SMITH JR., president of Smiths Clothiers of California (which has a store in the Corte Madera Shopping Center), delivered the keynote speech before the Menswear Retailers of America this week. He predicted the industry will turn to automation for its answers to future profits and customer satisfaction.

AMERICAN HOUSING GUILD, builders of the Twelve Oak Hill development in Marin County and projects in other Bay Area locations, has been cited for its outstanding kitchen designs and for advancement of national construction standards by Waste King Corp.

ACCORDING TO George W. Ososke of Kent Woodlands, executive secretary of the California Brewers Assn., Californians consumed more than nine million barrels of beer last year, making the Golden State the second largest beer consuming state in the nation.

California beer drinkers downed an average of 15.1 gallons each during the year, and together poured more than $400,000 a day in tax money into federal, state and local government treasuries. Taxes, Ososke noted, now account for 44.6 per cent of the cost of each barrel of beer consumed in the state.

CONGRATULATIONS to editor Karl Barron and staff of FM and the Arts, published in Sausalito, on new format and editorial features.

File All Your Canceled Checks

(From the California Society of Certified Public Accountants)

What are you going to do to substantiate your deductions if the tax man calls on you to do it?

A good system is to sort your canceled checks, and receipts or memoranda for deductions not evidenced by checks, into the various categories of deductions such as contributions, interest, taxes, etc., and keep them with your copy of the return.

Computations such as the deduction for gas tax, sales tax, carrying charges, and the like should be carefully made and should also be retained with your file copy.

A little care in organizing and filing the substantiating data can save a lot of time and may save dollars if your return is examined.

NEW NAPA GRID COACH FORFEITS SHRINE JOB

North-South Shrine game was searching for a new co-coach for the North today after St. Helena High's George A. Davis disqualified himself by accepting the position of head football coach at Napa Junior College. Davis, 38, had been named co-coach of the North with Collie Kidwell of Mountain View High, but must relinquish the position because the Shrine game in Los Angeles is open only to high school personnel, according to a Shrine spokesman.

Davis, former USC halfback, has coached St. Helena to 45 consecutive victories dating back to Nov. 14, 1959, including 29 shutouts and a total of 1,213 points to 139 for the opposition. At Napa he succeeds Dick Vermeil who has quit to become freshman coach at Stanford.

Alvin Dark Puts Giants On The Spot

By JOE REICHLER

MIAMI SPRINGS, Fla. (AP) — Fired as manager of the San Francisco Giants for failing to bring home the National League championship last year, Alvin Dark picked his old team today to win the pennant in 1965.

Dark, now a Chicago Cub coach, made one stipulation, however. He said they must avoid injuries, something they didn't do last year when they finished fourth, three games from the top.

"Look what happened to Los Aangeles last year when Sandy Koufax hurt his arm," Dark pointed out. "Barring injuries, however, the Giants should win mainly because they have the best talent."

This bold prediction by Dark could be construed by some as putting his successor, Herman Franks, squarely on the spot. Dark merely was giving a forthright answer to a direct question.

"The Giants still have Willie Mays," Dark said. "I've always maintained that Willie is in a class by himself. I still feel that way. But the Giants have other good players, like Orlando Cepeda, Willie McCovey, Tom Haller, Jim Ray Hart and others.

"And they've got some good pitchers to go with Juan Marichal."

Dark sees the National League race as a six-team scramble with Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Milwaukee, Los Angeles and the defending champion St. Louis Cardinals in the running all the way, along with the Giants.

"Pitching is the key to any pennant pursuit," he said. "The Cubs have one of the league's best pitchers in Larry Jackson. Give us another Jackson and we'd be a strong contender, too."

When Dark brought San Francisco its only National League flag back in 1962, he had Jack Sanford, Billy O'Dell, Billy Pierce, Marichal and Stu Miller heading his pitching staff. All are gone with the exception of Marichal, who was out a month last year with a bad back, and Sanford, who spent most of last season on the sidelines following an arm operation.

"I think the Giants have excellent pitching," said Dark. "Youngsters like Gaylord Perry, Ron Herbel, Bob Bolin and Dick Estelle are ready to come into their own. I regard Marichal as one of the best pitchers in all of baseball. Al Stanek, a rookie, has a world of promise. And I look for Sanford to come back strong."

Clay Scoffs At Death Threat: 'I Fear Nobody'

Champ Will Box At Convention

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — Heavyweight boxing champion Cassius Clay, known to his Black Muslim brethren as Muhammad Ali, scoffed at reports today that he may be marked for death.

"I fear nobody," he said. "I'm with God. If I'm going to die for truth, I'm ready. I'm not afraid of nothin'."

Rumors have it that the 23-year-old Clay may be next to die in retaliation for the assassination in New York last Sunday of his one-time friend, Malcolm X.

"I'm not afraid," he proclaimed. "You can tell them where I live and that I'm around for the asking. Tell them they're messing with God's messenger when they mess with my leader."

Clay was referring to Elijah Muhammad, head of the Nation of Islam sect to which Clay was converted.

"Tell them if they attack, we will fight back," he added.

At the height of the Black Muslim convention in Chicago this weekend, Clay will give a boxing exhibition in the police-cordoned Coliseum Saturday. Seating capacity is around 10,000.

He will go on display against his brother, Rudy, for a four-round matinee then go another four at night with Cody Jones of Detroit.

Clay, recovered from a hernia operation that postponed his title match with Sonny Liston until May 25 in Boston, will open heavy training for that bout in Miami next week.

Meanwhile, he is upstaging the World Boxing Association title fight in Chicago's Amphitheatre March 5 between Ernie Terrell and Eddie Machen.

The Illinois State Athletic Commission stamped approval yesterday of Clay's exhibition bouts while Terrell and Machen cooled their heels waiting their turn for an hour. Both WBA title contenders eventually were found fit and ready.

Clay was not present at the hearing and chairman Joe Triner said Clay was not required to take a physical examination.

"We assume he is healthy," he said.

"We had this meeting with Clay's representatives simply to iron out some mechanical problems."

Later, Richard Friedman of the Illinois Attorney General's office, admitted there was more than just talk of the weight of Clay's gloves, etc.

"We've been assured by the Chicago police department that they can handle the situation Saturday at the Coliseum," he said.

Even Charlie Dressen Couldn't Puncture The Poise Of Marichal

(This is the third of four articles on Juan Marichal, winner of 64 games for the Giants over the past three seasons.)

HANLEY

Juan Marichal took his one-hit 2-0 major league debut over the Phillies in stride. Naturally, he was happy to break into the big time with a shutout. But the 1960 Phillies weren't any fence busters. What would happen when Marichal went up against clubs that could belt the ball?

Marichal quickly dispelled any idea that he might be a fading flash such as Von McDaniel who plummeted into obscurity after a fiery start some years ago for the Cardinals. In his second start, Marichal faced the Pirates who were to become 1960 World Champions. Juan handcuffed them 3-1 on a four-hitter.

THE DOMINICAN Dandy's third assignment was another severe test. He was sent against Warren Spahn and the Braves on July 28, 1960. Charlie Dressen, then Milwaukee manager, watched Marichal put the Braves down 1-2-3 in the first two innings and decided he might as well try to ruffle the rookie if his big hitters couldn't.

Marichal was throwing his warmup pitches for the start of the third when Dressen called time. Dressen consulted with Jocko Conlan, plate umpire that day, and together they went to the mound. Dressen protested Marichal's delivery was illegal, that the rookie's pivot foot was off the side of the rubber. Marichal ignored the interruption. He kept throwing warmup pitches and Dressen kept point-

ANTITRUST HEARINGS

Secret Pro Football Signings Are Next

By G. MILTON KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The signing of college football players by professional clubs while the athletes still have college eligibility will be examined next in a Senate investigation of big time sport.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., chairman of the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee, expects to take testimony over one or two days. He announced no date for the start of these hearings.

The subcommittee is conducting an inquiry in connection with a bill by Hart and other senators to limit antitrust law exemptions for strictly sports aspects of professional baseball, football, basketball and hockey.

The subcommittee tentatively wound up its investigation of professional baseball yesterday. Hart told a reporter professional basketball and hockey went on record last year as endorsing the bill and there may be no need to call their officials again unless they want to be heard.

But he said Sen. A.S. (Mike) Monroney, D-Okla., has requested investigation of the secret signing of college football stars by professional teams and that the request will be granted. Hart said officials of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the National and American Football Leagues would be among the witnesses.

He said the subcommittee would examine in depth what steps the two professional leagues are taking to forbid and punish the premature signing of college stars.

The baseball phase of the inquiry reached a tentative end with testimony by Arthur C. Allyn Jr., Chicago White Sox owner, that the American League has "blown the whistle" on domination of its affairs by the New York Yankees.

He said the Yanks have had a powerful voice, but that from now on they will be just "one of us."

Allyn said the change came about after the controversial sale of the Yankees to the Columbia Broadcasting System, which the subcommittee has been investigating.

Charles O. Finley, owner-president of the Kansas City Athletics, took a different view, however, He testified that CBS' ownership of the Yankees gives the network an unfair advantage in bidding for profitable broadcasting contracts.

Finley suggested club owners resisting any deals proposed by CBS still might feel the sting of retaliation from the yankees in league affairs. He invited the federal government to nullify the sale.

Chinese Top Philippine Open Golf

MANILA (AP) — Hsieh Yung-Yo of Nationalist China, the 1964 Far East open circuit champion, fired a four-under-par 68 today and took the first-round lead in the Philippine Open Golf Tournament. The 31-year-old Formosan posted a 32-36 after the first 18 holes at the 6,908-yard Wack Wack Golf and Country Club.

One stroke behind in second place with a 33-36—69 was another Chinese, Lu Liang-Huan. Estanislao Pinet, a Filipino, was third with a 35-35—70.

Doug Sanders of Ojai, Calif., shot a two-over-par 38-36—74.

Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriguez of Puerto Rico, bothered by an upset stomach, finished the opening round with a 39-37—76.

Australia's Peter Thomson, the defending champion, blew up with a 41-39—80, eight strokes over par.

Seals Get Closer To Playoffs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The rest of the Western Hockey League may have been idle last night, but the San Francisco Seals were busy driving for a playoff position.

The Seals walloped league-leading Portland 7-3 before 3,846 fans at the Cow Palace and moved within one point of fourth-place Victoria. Last season the Seals edged into fourth place and then went on to win the playoff cup.

The game ended with a wild third period in which San Francisco scored on two goals by Larry Lund and single tallies by Tom Thurlby and Len Haley while Portland got goals from Cliff Schmautz and Tom McVie.

San Francisco grabbed a 3-2 lead at the end of two periods on goals by Nick Mickoski, Al Nicholson and Eddie Panagabko. Con Madigan and Andy Hebenton opened Portland's scoring.

The WHL has only one game on tape tonight, Seattle at Los Angeles.

CLARKE VERSUS MILLS: S.F. TRACK 'NATURAL'

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Australia's Ron Clarke flew 6,500 miles so he can run two.

"I thought I'd like to take a step at the indoor two-mile record," explained the distance running star who also will get a chance to race against the man who upset him in the Olympic 10,000 meter race.

The last time Clarke ran on the boards was a year ago in New York where he set a world indoor record for three miles at 13 minutes 18.4 seconds.

Now he goes after Jim Beatty's record of 8:30.6, in the shorter race over the Cow Palace track.

He faces U.S. Marine Billy Mills and, asked if the prospect was a factor in his decision to make the long trip to the United States, Clarke replied quickly, "it helped."

The Australian arrived in San Francisco on Wednesday, will race in the Golden Gate two-mile on Friday, fly to Louisville for Saturday's Mason - Dixon Games and then back to his homeland on Sunday.

"I have a 10-mile race in Melbourne on Wednesday, a mile race on Saturday and a two mile on Sunday," explained the busy runner who already this year has broken three world marks outdoors.

He ran the 5,000 meters first in 13:34.8 and then 13:33.6 and a three-mile in 13:07.6.

The Clarke-Mills duel will be one of two individual rivalries on the Golden Gate program. Russia's Igor Ter - Ovanesyan beat America's Ralph Boston in the AAU at New York last week and Boston seeks revenge.

The veteran Boston decided to compete only in the broad jump and pass up the hurdles—which he won in New York—so he can concentrate on world record holder Ter-Ovanesyan.

Both had best jumps of 26 feet 2¼ inches in the AAU event but the Russian won the first place since his second best leap was 26-1, three-quarters of an inch further thna Boston's No.2 effort.

St. Louis Blues Hit Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Nobody in the National Basketball Association could have the St. Louis Blues more than San Francisco.

The St. Louis Hawks beat the San Francisco Warriors for the eighth time this season—against no defeats — 111-103 last night in San Francisco.

The Warriors lost the game from the free throw line as they outgunned the Hawks from the field by three field goals. Center Nate Thurmond led San Francisco with 26 points, a point production matched by the Hawks' Zelmo Beaty.

The defeat was San Francisco's seventh in a row, 31st in the last 34 games and 53rd of the season. They have won 14.

Phillies Loaded, Stronger Than 1964

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — The first official spring training workout for the Philadelphia Phillies still is a day away, but already Manager Gene Mauch has predicted big things for two of the club's new members and better things for the team.

Though he declined to predict a National League pennant for his team, Mauch said he expected the Phils "to win more games than last year."

"This is the strongest we've been," Mauch said yesterday, "because we have all the good things while adding some things which have a chance to be outstanding."

Two of the "things" Mauch considers potentially great are first baseman Dick Stuart, obtained in an off-season trade from the Boston Red Sox, and pitcher Bo Belinsky, acquired from the Los Angeles Angels.

"Stuart will hit 20 home runs in Philadelphia and another 20 on the road," Mauch said.

Stuart's best season for home runs was with the Red Sox in 1963, when he hit 42. His best National League slugging season was 1961, when he hit 35 for the Pittsburgh Pirates. To get Stuart, the Phillies traded away left-hander Dennis Bennett, who posted a 12-14 won-lost record in 1964. "I'll be surprised if Belinsky doesn't do as much or more than Dennis Bennett," Mauch said.

Last season the Phillies led the National League pennant race most of the way, only to hit a 10-game losing streak in mid-September and lose the pennant by one game.

One of the key figures in the Phillies' successful season was Frank Thomas, obtained from the New York Mets last August, When the veteran first baseman suffered a broken thumb in September, the Phillies began to slip.

Mauch said he doubts if Thomas will be able to play regularly this year because of the acquisition of Stuart.

"If we're strong enough to keep Thomas on the bench, we are doing pretty good," Mauch added.

Bills Get Rid Of Troublesome Star

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Cookie Gilchrist's stormy three-year career with the Buffalo Bills, American Football League champions, is over — and the end came as no surprise to anyone.

The Bills traded Gilchrist to the Denver Broncos yesterday for fullbck Billy Joe, the AFL's Rookie of the Year in 1963. No cash was involved.

"It had to come," Coach Lou Saban said. "The situation between Cookie and the Bills had become impossible. I felt a change was necessary."

Gilchrist could not be reached for comment. He had said previously that, on at least five occasions, Saban wanted to trade him.

Last year, before he signed his 1964 contract, Gilchrist asked to be traded. The move was interpreted as an attempt to force the Bills to pay him more than the $28,000 he received.

The 29-year-old fullback had his share of problems both on and off the playing field.

The final straw on the field came last Nov. 15 when he refused to reenter the Boston game just before halftime and complained that quarterback Jack Kemp was not feeding him the ball often enough.

Gilchrist's pass-protection blocking deteriorated so badly in the second half of the game that Kemp took a real pounding from the Patriots, who won the game.

Saban fired Gilchrist, temporarily, after this performance. He reinstated him 36 hours later following Gilchrist's apology to Saban and his plea to his teammates for another chance.

Off the field, Gilchrist ran afoul of the law. He was arrested by Buffalo police on a motor-vehicle charge and subsequently was accused of flooring a policeman during a struggle in the police station. That charge was dismissed by the courts.

Two days after Buffalo won the AFL crown by defeating the San Diego Chargers, Gilchrist went to Detroit to ask Bills' owner Ralph C. Wilson Jr. for a $3,000 bonus. Gilchrist claimed Saban promised it to him. The bonus was not paid.

Joe, 24, is nearly as big as Gilchrist. Joe, 6-foot-2 and 250 pounds, is considered a sturdy blocker, dependable on short yardage and faster than Gilchrist.

Joe gained 649 yards with a 4.2-yard per carry average in 1963. He slipped to 415 yards in 111 carries last year, despite poor feet and overweight.

"We believe we got ourselves a fine football player in return," Saban said of Joe.

Sam Jones Celts' New 'Super Star'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With all the success the Boston Celtics have had in the past nine seasons, they never have had a man win a scoring championship.

The 1964-65 season won't be an exception the way Wilt Chamberlain and Oscar Robertson are going, but it looks like they may have a contender for the future.

Sam Jones — the Celtics' new "super star" according to Coach Red Auerbach — set a Celtics' season scoring record with his 27 points last night against Los Angeles. Jones now has 1,763 points, 21 more than the previous high of 1,742 scored by Tommy Heinsohn during the 1961-62 campaign.

Jones ranks fourth in the league scoring race, averaging 25.9 points a game.

Jones got a lot of help from Heinsohn and Bill Russell as the Celtics squeaked by the Lakers 97-95.

In other games, Detroit edged Philadelphia 106-104, Baltimore whipped New York 111-100 and St. Louis downed San Francisco 111-103.

Boston had difficulty starting at Los Angeles and five minutes had elapsed before Jones scored the first Celtics field goal. Boston finally pulled in front before the half.

Heinsohn then contributed four long jump shots boosting the margin to 19 points toward the end of the third period.

The Lakers closed fast in the last quarter and a basket and a foul shot by Russell were necessary to cement the victory in the final 12 seconds.

Back To Reality; Marinites Home From Sun Valley, Alta Vacation

Back to reality, after 16 days of skiing at Sun Valley and Alta, Utah. Missed all the crowds in the Sierra by staying at Alta through Washington's Birthday and winging back to Marin County in a high-flying Cessna 190 at sunrise Tuesday from Salt Lake City. Felt sort of funny on the Sausalito bus with a fur parka, and the driver just barely tolerated carrying skiis, but it was worth it for just one more day of that Alta snow.

We flew low over Squaw Valley. The moguls were so big at the top of Squaw Peak and Siberia that they rippled in the early sunshine, even from that altitude. Lots of people skiied there over the weekend.

FROM THE original group of 21 Marin Ski Club members who went to Sun Valley, the number went down to 13 at Alta, as some left, and a few new ones joined us.

They made us proud in the Alta "A" races, slaloms for men and women, set up by famous skiier Alf Engen, who now directs the ski school. Shiniest silver "A" went to Scott Watterworth, who ran the course in the fastest time, 28.4 seconds. Barry Evergettis came in fourth, winning a bronze "A", and Terry Bunton was 12th.

IN THE women's division, Clare Gannon was third, with 37.1 seconds. Sandra Masson was fourth, Judy Shillinger seventh, and I was eighth. Clare and Sandra won bronze "A" pins. Presentation was made in the Sitzmark Club at Alta Lodge, where the group stayed.

FOR THOSE who plan ahead, here are a few dates:

March 6, Bay Area Council Winter Carnival, Race and dinner, Donner Spitz Inn;

March 13, Marin Ski Club—Berkeley Ski Club race;

March 20, Bill Freitas Race, Sugar Bowl;

April 3, MSC race and party.

April 4, Trader Vic's Tiki Race at Sugar Bowl. That will be a weekend!

ing to Marichal's pivot foot.

FINALLY, JOCKO had enough and ordered Dressen back to the Brave bench, declaring "There's nothing illegal about the way he's pitching."

Marichal then proceeded to put the Braves down 1-2-3 in the third and went on to beat them and the great Spahn 3-2 for his third straight complete game victory. He now was the talk of the baseball world. Even the wily old Dressen couldn't puncture the poise of the then 21-year-old rookie who finished 1960 with a 6-2 record, completing six of 11 starts.

ALTHOUGH MARICHAL seemingly displayed no interest in Dressen's protest about his footwork on the mound, Juan didn't completely dismiss it. Thereafter, he moved his pivot foot from side to side, occasionally pivoting from the center of the pitching rubber. The rookie made his point. He wasn't winning with tricky footwork.

Marichal's major league success made him a hero in the Dominican Republic. His fellow countrymen clamored to see more and more of him in the Caribbean winter league. Between his main job with the Giants and winter obligation to Dominican fans, Marichal finally found himself pitching 400 to 450 innings a year. At that rate it wouldn't be long before Marichal burned himself out.

(Tomorrow: The Giants call a halt.)

U.S. Draws Bye In Davis Cup

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — The United States, Mexico and Canada have drawn byes in the first round of the American Zone in this year's Davis Cup tennis play.

The draw, made by the Lawn Tennis Association of Australia, pits British Caribbean against New Zealand in the first round with the winner playing Mexico in the semifinals.

The United States will play Canada in the second semi.

Richardson, Rischer To Try Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Willie Richardson's managers hope he will go into his next match for the California heavyweight championship in a "more reserved manner" than last time.

Last time was Feb. 10. Richardson jumped into the ring and began kicking state heavyweight champion Roger Rischer of Oakland before the bell had started the first round. The fight was called off before it even began.

Matchmaker Don Chargin says he hopes to restage the scheduled 12-round bout in mid March, at the same Oakland auditorium where the first fight was set.

Richardson, of San Jose, was suspended indefinitely Feb. 11 by the State Athletic Commission. Later he apologized to the commission's chief inspector, Bob Turley, who says Richardson may fight again if certain conditions are met.

The conditions include a $250 fine to be paid the commission, $250 to be paid Rischer for additional training expenses and a $1,000 bond to guarantee future commitments.

After the kicking episode, the two fighters mixed outside the ring and finally were separated by Oakland police.

Richardson said he was kicked by Rischer in an earlier bout at San Jose in which Rischer knocked him out in the 11th round.

Armstead Named Cal Fighter Of The Year

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Paulie Armstead, California lightweight boxing champion, has been selected to receive the Russ Newland Northern California fighter- of- the- year award March 7.

Boxing writers in the area named Armstead yesterday. The award honors the late sports writer for The Associated Press.

The World Boxing Association also ranked Armstead the No. 1 challenger in the 135-pound division. He is a native of Lufkin, Tex., and fought out of Los Angeles before moving to San Francisco.

The boxing writers also named featherweight Alex Benitez of San Jose the best prospect of the year, and middleweight Rocky Montalvo the best preliminary fighter.

The best fight of 1964 was the Charley Shipes - Silky Shelton bout at Richmond for the welterweight title, the writers announced. Shipes won the 12-rounder.

Mario Spampinato, trainer and matchmaker, was voted the man-of-the-year in boxing.

Stripers Thick In San Pablo Bay; Price War Among Party Boats?

STEVENS

"Seems like someone is always taking the fun out of fishing," lamented Dick Payne, erstwhile dealer in bait and tackle in San Lorenzo. "So?" I asked. "Yeah!" moaned Dick. "It's bad enough when a fellow does it, but when a guy's married, and takes his frau fishin' and she catches a larger fish, and calls up a commentator and crows about it . . ."

Pinned down, Dick admitted his better-half was just that. Audrey Payne hooked, played and landed a striper that weighed 15½ pounds while Dick's lone fish barely made a light 10 pounds. I suggest Dick would be foolish to quit fishing because of that one defeat. Take her out this week and prove his superiority.

LOTS OF FISH around at present—striped bass, I mean. Seem to be well distributed in the lower, middle and upper San Pablo Bay. Lots of sturgeon around, too. China Camp and Joe's Launching reported a very good three-day production of stripers as well as quite a few sturgeon. Incidentally, the majority of bass are of good size, perhaps an average of 12 pounds, with very few really small fish, but a number of bass in the 12 to 20-pound class.

SORT OF LOOKS like we are in for a price war on local salmon trips. I understand a well known San Francisco party boat headquarters is now charging $10 per rod instead of the $12 which has been standard for the fleet working out of the local harbors.

"I'd rather have a full load at $10 than a half-load at $12," seems to be the argument put up by part of the fleet. "We'd rather stick to the established price of $12 and give our customers a clean boat and good accommodations," the majority of party-boat skippers working out of Oakland, Sausalito and some smaller points have declared.

CERTAINLY THIS columnist has no call to butt in, but I would call attention to the dangers of price-cutting. I remember many years ago, when such a price war existed among the party-boat skippers taking loads out after striped bass. Many old-timers will remember how any group walking on the Martinez pier carrying rods and tackle boxes was beset by skipper after skipper offering to take the party out at a lower fee than another skipper.

It sounds silly today, but during that price war at the Martinez harbor, many groups were taken out for a dollar each. Some party boat skippers were forced out of business, and others had to take out singles quite often. Trouble is, when price cutting starts there is, very often, no stopping it. As a result, no one prospers and everybody loses. I wonder what became of the Party Boat Skippers Association? Is it dead or just not functioning?

Saint-Laurent Shows Smock, Ascot Ties And Pussycat Bows

By LUCIE NOEL

PARIS (AP) — Yves Saint-Laurent has returned to the fisherman's smock, bringing it out for smart city wear, and entertaining at home.

His collection was shown to the press, a month after most of the other houses.

Saint-Laurent, his designing amateurism gone, turned to linens, Aleutian weaves and silk prints for his smocks. Many had long flowing Ascot ties or pussycat bows.

ANOTHER favorite line is a wrap-around surplice fronted dress, ending with a bow at a very low hipline.

The mood is youthful and Saint-Laurent has found inspiration in a variety of styles from different countries.

CONTINUING an Indian trend, many little dresses recall Aladdin with their jeweled borders and neckline treatment. Many others are demurely Victorian, for Saint-Laurent makes a wide use of ruffles and ruches, edging necklines, hemlines and pointed shawl scarves with fabric featuring a three-inch ruffle.

There are ruffles on Saturday night black chiffon dresses as well as in floral prints.

THE CHINESE trend comes through in oversize shawl embroidery in effective evening colors on his favorite green. Besides his coolie hats there are flowing paneled evening dresses reminiscent of the Chinese ancient dynasty robes. There are Coromandel screen patterns shown in a flowing daytime coat and dress.

THE SUBURBAN SCENE

Parties And Some Adventure

By MOLLY MARIN

Mrs. Frederic Palmer III has invited her guests for sherry before they go on to make up two tables at tomorrow's bridge luncheon sponsored by St. Margaret's Guild of Christ Church, Sausalito.

Others who will be hostesses at one table each are Mesdames O. C. Foote, Emmet L. Rixford, Frank E. Rossman, John Koenig, Ernest King and Frank Williams. Others planning to attend are Mesdames Henry E. Douglas, George R. Chapman, Alan Conner and James Smith.

MR. AND MRS. FRED BAKER have returned to Sausalito from a two weeks' trip to Mexico. They flew to La Paz and especially enjoyed an overnight trip from there to Mazatlan on the luxurious steamer built in Japan for the Mexican government.

After five days in Mazatlan they took a bus north to Los Mochis for their main objective —the exciting railroad trip across the mountains into the interior. This turned out to be something of an adventure, for at the 8,000-foot summit a freight train was derailed and they were forced to stay there eight hours so that the trip to Chihuahua took 19 hours instead of eight. From Chihuahua they flew home.

A NUMBER OF Marin women are participating as members of the Golden Gate Kindergarten Assn. Auxiliary in the forthcoming champagne preview planned on March 19 in conjunction with the "Home Furnishings and Decorator Show" at San Francisco Civic Center. Marin women include Mesdames George Bill and Raymond Perkins of San Rafael; Lee Hand and Richard Spown, Corte Madera, and Gordon Bigelow and William Mackey of Greenbrae.

SEVERAL COUPLES are planning parties before the St. Hilary's Mardi Gras party and dance on Saturday evening in Tiburon. Hosts will be the Jerry L. Connellys, whose guests will include Messrs. and Mesdames Richard E. Hall of San Rafael, William R. Schmidt of Mill Valley and John F. Green Jr. of Tiburon. Others who will entertain at cocktail gatherings are the Marshall N. Fosters and the Chester L. Roots.

WELCOMING THE MEMBERSHIP

Mrs. Edward Ravizza, president of the Social Service Auxiliary of Marin, pours during the champagne tea yesterday given by the auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Louis Pometta to greet the group's new members. From left are Mesdames Vern C. Sanford, Jack Weber, Martin H. O'Brien Jr. and Fred Lancelotti. The Rev. John O'Connor, director of the Catholic Social Service in Marin, and Miss Margaret Frings, executive secretary, were on hand to greet the guests. (Independent-Journal photo)

President Has High-Level Saleswoman

By BONNIE ANGELO
National Service

WASHINGTON—President Johnson has a high-level volunteer selling two of his great society programs: Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson.

The First Lady, broadening her 30-year career as her husband's helpmate and taking on service far beyond her duties as White House hostess, is working to promote the war on poverty and the beautification of cities.

An astute woman with a practical turn of mind, Mrs. Johnson knows she has great assets for dramatizing projects that arouse her concern. She has the White House and the attention of the nation, and she plans to use both.

She was recently hostess to 200 women leaders from all parts of the nation invited to help launch "Project Headstart," a new undertaking in which the efforts of 20,000 women will be sought to help children from disadvantaged homes start school on a better footing.

The project, a part of their anti-poverty program, is guaranteed a faster start by Mrs. Johnson's show of interest.

This week Mrs. Johnson will use the second of her invaluable tools — an on-the-spot visit to focus attention on a project she feels is of special merit. Tomorrow she will fly to St. Petersburg, Fla., to present diplomas to the first graduation class of domestic Peace Corps Volunteers. She will also look in on the sites where the volunteers — ranging from a 19-year-old recreation specialist to a 71-year-old retired Army colonel—have taken extensive training for six weeks.

Anti-poverty officials feel the First Lady's visit to St. Petersburg will probably do much to increase public understanding of their programs.

These are only the beginnings of Mrs. Johnson's efforts to dramatize the new efforts of the office of economic opportunity. She has told poverty program director Sargent Shriver that she will be available for future visits of this kind.

The second area in which Mrs. Johnson is excercising direct leadership is in urban beatification, using the nation's capital as her example for other cities to follow. She has already called one White House meeting and will soon go out for an inspection trip of Washington's mall with interior secretary Stewart Udall.

The mall, the great strip of green stretching from the Capitol to the Washington Monument, will be Mrs. Johnson's personal project. It is now just grass. She wants it to come alive with flowers and fountains —and, displaying a touch of her husband's celebrated impatience, she wants some immediate action which will produce immediate progress.

One committee member said that with spring coming on the First Lady is eager to show local citizens everywhere how quickly their efforts will pay off in natural beauty. At the same time she is working with expert planners on long range projects which will take more time to accomplish.

In the beautification program, Mrs. Johnson will work closely with Udall, who shares her love of the land and her concern for preserving natural beauty.

These two areas of interest will be the First Lady's special program for the year.

Pancake Supper Set Tuesday

The annual Shrove Tuesday pancake supper will be held at St. Francis Episcopal Church in Block Hall, Novato, at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday. William Burks is chairman of the annual affair.

The meeting of the Episcopal churchwomen will be held beginning at 10:15 a.m., Wednesday, following the midweek communion service at 9:30 a.m.

The program will be presented on the annual convention held at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco in February.

Hostesses for the day will be Mesdames Robert Beebe and Arthur Caswell.

Novato Hospital Volunteer Dinner

The Novato Hospital Volunteer Service will meet on Tuesday at Rancho Rafael, Ignacio. Election and installation of officers will be held and awards presented to junior and senior volunteers.

Dr. John Siemens and Dr. Ralph Weseman will be guests at the 7 p.m. dinner.

Senior volunteers receiving awards will be Mesdames Frank Gast, 1,000 hours; John Roos, 500 hours; William Eckhoff and Henry Chiosi, 250 hours, and Lee Baugh, Charles Haymart, Gerald Long and Gerald Lombard, 100 hours.

Chain guards will be presented to junior volunteers for hundreds of hours of service to go with their 50 hour pins.

April Painter, Sharon Gransee, Sue McGinnis and Kathe Robinson will receive awards for 200 hours; Bonnie Foley, Loraine Moberg, Donna Rousseau, Valerie Witzel and Judy McGinnis, 100 hours, and Katie Canham, Diane Thorsson and Bonnie Bell, 50 hours.

Child Can Read At Age Of Three

NEW YORK (UPI) — Children can and should begin reading instruction at home or in kindergarten as early as three, reports Waston Washburn, president of the Reading Reform Foundation.

"The years between three and six probably are the most favorable for the teaching of reading," he said. "It is a tragic irony that for 40 years most 'experts' did their best to prevent any reading instruction 'til children reached six or seven, thus wasting three or four of the most precious years of potential mental growth."

Corte Madera Losing Good Man When Brandow Leaves Town Job

Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow Jr. has been around Corte Madera just long enough so most of the residents cannot remember anybody else in charge.

Residents can expect a wrenching and loud shifting of gears in local government while the new manager is being found and broken in on the job.

IN MANY WAYS Brandow is a classic example of the liberal bureaucrat. His liberal tendencies made him a strong supporter of land use planning, a hater of billboards and perhaps unmindful of the cries of businessmen.

Bureaucracy has become a dirty word of late, but applied in its better sense to Brandow it meant he did not play favorites or make exceptions for influential people. He played it by the book and was hard-nosed about bending rules.

And that has been about the way people wanted it. Corte Madera is a residential community first. There is one big shopping center, and the town is happy to live off its sales taxes.

BUT THE RELATIONSHIP between center merchants and the town has always been more tenuous than that between residents and the local government. Too many merchants live outside town.

Therefore, large residential lots and small signs were appealing. Forcing new builders to maintain new city standards not required of earlier residents also met with favor. The new slope policy ordinance, supported by Christmas Tree Hill dwellers, is an example.

But there was one way Brandow has not fit the stereotype of a bureaucrat. He has not been an empire builder. The city staff has been held down, especially the fire department, which still largely depends on volunteers.

UNTIL PASSAGE of a bond issue for a new public safety building, the town offices seemed doomed forever to be cramped in a cottage euphemistically called the Town Hall Annex.

Brandow, an engineer, has pushed for new streets and better construction, but has not been pushy about more staff or new equipment. And, lo and behold, the town tax rate has stayed relatively low, considering the tax base.

The total tax rate hitting citizens of the area is unusually high, however, mainly because of the Larkspur School District, which has one of the heaviest levies in the county, with a special override for seventh and eighth grade classes.

BRANDOW WILL leave Corte Madera April 1 for a higher-paying job. The council will have to struggle through budget sessions and start of construction of the public safety building without a manager, or with a brand-new one.

Engineering is under way for some major street projects, including one to ease the heavy commute problems on Paradise Drive. Brandow is also town engineer, and that job must be filled, too.

The present manager's pet peeve, oversized business signs, was about to receive special city attention. What will happen to that campaign?

The City of Belmont, which hired Brandow away from Marin, took several months to find the right man. Corte Madera may have to do the same. But meanwhile someone will have to keep the home fires, and the new budget and construction plans, burning.

Modern Parents Ought To Give Children Time To Be Young

NEW YORK (AP) — Pity the poor modern child!

He is becoming the most prominent victim of our fumbling attempts to create a more livable world.

Most of us aging codgers tend to low-rate the youngsters of today.

WE ENJOY the pleasant assumption that life was tougher when we were children. We love to bore our own young with all the hardships we knew in childhood—how many miles we had to walk to school, how many chores we did around the home, how early in life we earned our own spending money by delivering newspapers, selling magazines or sacking potatoes all day Saturday for the corner grocery store.

To hear us tell it, the fabled labors of Hercules were as nothing to the work we accomplished in adolescence. And each of us, looking nostalgically back at those arduous times, never forgets to add piously:

"But hard work never hurt any kid. It was good for me. It made a man of me—not a cry baby."

MOST OF THIS is pure piffle. Every generation as it grows older likes to brak about how much rougher a time it had than the generation that succeeds it.

When we recall the ordeals of our youth, we forget one advantage of that privileged time. Kids were left on their own more. They had more freedom to make their own fun.

America was less crowded then. There were more woods to explore, more room for digging caves, more creeks to fish in, more ponds to swim in.

The blessed innocence of childhood lasted longer. Boys and girls didn't ape adulthood at such an early age,

WE OFTEN complain about the ingratitude of young people today. Well, if we were honest with ourselves, we could readily find reasons why they should resent us rather than feel grateful.

If they were pampered and overprotected, who is responsible? They aren't. We are. If we do too much for them in some ways, in other ways we do too little for them.

One of the worst crimes against our young is that we rob them of security in childhood. We make them old too soon.

Almost as soon as a baby learns to toddle, his parents start dinning into him the importance of getting into the right college.

MODERN children are tense and insecure because they have a schedule as tight as that of a busy executive. All their activities are arranged for them. They are supervised almost to death. They have no time left for one of the chief industries of childhood—wonder and idle dreaming.

What we are doing is transferring our own fears and pressures to our children. What we need to do now and then is to let up on them, give them a day off to themselves, and let them enjoy their childhood while they still have it.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Invite Game In Major With Delayed Raise

When you open the bidding with one spade or one heart your partner is not allowed to bid two-and-a-half of your suit.

Nevertheless he has a way of showing a hand that is too good for a single raise but not good enough for a double raise: He responds first in a suit of his own and later raises your suit.

2 ♠	Pass	3 ♠	All Pass

Opening lead — ♣ 2

With only ten points in high cards and flat distribution, North might well have been satisfied with a raise from one spade to two spades.

CLUBS FIRST

The actual North player thought that this would not do justice to his hand, so he showed his clubs first and raised spades later.

South would have accepted the invitation if North had responded in diamonds, but the club response did not arouse South's enthusiasm. South therefore shrewdly decided to stop short at three spades.

As it happened, South did not play the hand as cautiously as he bid it. He began well by taking the two top clubs and discarding a diamond, but then he slipped from grace by drawing four rounds of trumps.

BAD BREAK

South ran into a bad break when he tried the hearts out. East got three heart tricks, and the defendes also took two diamonds. Down one.

It was a grievous error to draw any trumps at all. After taking the top clubs South should cash the ace of hearts and lead a heart toward dummy's queen.

East wins with the king of hearts and returns a trump to dummy's 10.

GIVES UP

South gives up another heart, and East puts his partner in with a diamond to return a second round of trumps. South wins and ruffs his last heart in dummy. This ruff assures the contract.

Declarer would need good luck in hearts if he had bid game, but he needed only a heart ruff in dummy to make sure of nine tricks.

The correct play of a hand depends not only on what cards you hold but also on how high you have bid.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ 6
♥ K J 10 9
♦ K 8 5 4
♣ Q 8 4 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds (or two clubs).

You plan to raise hearts at your next turn, thus showing a hand too good for a raise to two hearts but not good enough for an immediate jump to three hearts.

Park, Rec Group Makeup A Riddle

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Figuring out the status of the Marin County Park and Recreation Commission has become a challenge just about as complex as that old riddle about the cannibals and the missionaries.

And if County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker continues to prod the demons of confusion, some commissioners are liable to be swallowed up, never to be seen again.

Leydecker, acting Jan. 19 on the supposition that Commissioner James M. Fletcher had moved out of the First District, leaving the district without representation on the commission, asked removal of Fletcher and his replacement by Lothar Salin.

Actually, the First District was already represented by Mrs. Adele J. Alpers of San Rafael, a member since the commission was formed.

And actually, Fletcher had not moved out of the district as Leydecker said. He still lived at 295 Bret Harte Road, San Rafael. What had happened was the redistricting had shifted Fletcher's home from the First to Fourth District.

Furthermore, the same thing had happened to Salin. His home at 15 Ross Street, San Rafael, formerly within the First District, had ended up in the Fourth District with redistricting.

What the board of supervisors did Jan. 19 was replace a commissioner from the Fourth District with another from the Fourth District. The Fourth District is supposed to be represented by Supervisor Thomas T. Storer. He normally would nominate commission replacements from his district.

Fletcher confessed that the whole business came as a surprise to him. He never expected to be replaced when he and others on the park and recreation commission turned in their resignations at the request of supervisors.

Fletcher said district representation on the five-man commission was not strictly followed and had not been for some time.

Fletcher, the first chairman of the commission, was named by former Supervisor William D. Fusselman. At that time Fletcher lived in San Anselmo. Later Fletcher moved to San Rafael, making both himself and Mrs. Alpers First District members.

No one suggested at that time that Fletcher be replaced.

Redistricting put Gibbs H. Lawson of Dillon Beach into the Fifth District with Mrs. Charles P. Davies of Novato. It left Mrs. William B. Newman of Tiburon in the Third District, put Fletcher in the Fourth District, but left the Second District without commission representation.

Another district boundary change, approved Tuesday by supervisors to take effect June 30, will put Lawson back into the Fourth District with Salin.

If things can get so confused with five commissioners, what will it be like with seven? Will the missionaries ever get safely across the river?

However, a seven-man commission is the "solution" supervisors are discussing now as a means of getting representation for all districts without kicking anyone off.

Fletcher said he is convinced that he was not removed from the commission because of where he lived or where he did not move to. He said there was obviously some other reason, but he would not speculate on it.

"I don't think Mr. Leydecker had much to say about it," Fletcher said cryptically.

Fletcher backed Leydecker in the supervisorial election last fall. So did Salin.

Redistricting To Be Topic

Thomas Skornia and Dr. Cheryl Petersen will explain legislative stands on reapportionment at the Tiburon Peninsula Democratic Club potluck dinner Sunday at 6 p.m. at Whitaker Hall in Belvedere.

Skornia is chairman of the First Congressional District Democratic Study Committee on Senate Reapportionment. Dr. Petersen is co-chairman of the First District Caucus and legislative assistant to Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh.

A steering committee for the club will be selected. Mrs. Elizabeth Friedenthal and Frank Ryan are organizing the event.

Pro Musica, And Handbell Concert Set

Marin Pro Musica and the Marin Handbell Ringers will present a free concert March 2 at 8:15 p.m. in Stewart Memorial Chapel of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Both groups are directed by Wilbur F. Russell.

Special guests will be members of the San Francisco Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. Marin Pro Musica will sing Lenten Motets of Vittoria and Thomas Morley and parts of the William Byrd Mass for Four Voices. The handbell ringers will perform works for handbells.

Preceding the concert there will be a 15-minute ring on the Robert Dollar Memorial Bells of the carillon in the tower.

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

Senators Learn Of 'Bugs'

By EDWARD W. O'BRIEN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Senators have been advised that the only sure way to keep a secret is not to say it aloud.

It was tough medicine for members of a talk-loving body.

But a Senate Judiciary subcommittee was given a dazzlingly persuasive demonstration of electronic eavesdropping by witnesses who are doing a thriving business making and selling the devices.

These witnesses brushed aside ordinary telephone tapping as so simple it is hardly worth talking about.

"Any trained agent won't be satisfied with anything less than a three-wire tap," said Ralph V. Ward, sales vice president of a Mosler Safe Co. subsidiary that specializes in bugs and counter-bugs for government agencies and licensed private detectives.

A three-wire tap, he explained, is one that converts a telephone mouthpiece into a constantly live microphone that picks up all conversations in a large room and sends them by radio to an eavesdropper or tape recorder some distance away.

After all, Ward said, the most interesting comments are often made after a telephone is put back on its hook.

The real challenge in eavesdropping, the subcommittee was told, is in secretly bugging rooms, automobiles, and even people in a way that minimizes or eliminates chance of discovery by other experts.

The subcommittee, headed by Missouri Democrat Edward V. Long, was shown bugs — a complete microphone, radio transmitter, and antenna — that were hidden in a pack of cigarettes, a tie clasp, a wrist watch, a wall picture, a rose, a cigarette lighter, a woman's purse, a book, and even a full martini glass, where the toothpick in the ubiquitous olive served as the antenna.

The committee hearing room became so congested with illicit radio transmissions that one witness, San Francisco private detective Harold K. Lipset, complained, "There're too many transmitters going in here. We'll jam the works."

Senator Long explained that his subcommittee is considering new laws to curb "alleged invasions of privacy by federal agencies."

The problem, he said, is to find a balance between individual rights and proper law enforcement.

But his subcommittee has already found that "non-security" agencies of the federal government "have purchased a considerable quantity of electronic surveillance equipment," he said.

A witness, Sholly Kagan, head of a small Belmont, Mass., maker of sophisticated Hi-Fi bugging gadgets, agreed with Senator Long in seeing "a danger" to individual rights in the present, largely unregulated use of snooping equipment.

Kagan suggested a law limiting use of the equipment to criminal investigators.

In the last four years, he said, his firm has sold 199 devices worth $131,395 to the Internal Revenue Service, Narcotics and Customs bureaus, and the Food and Drug Administration.

A competitor, the Fargo Co. of San Francisco, has had the same agencies as customers plus the treasury agents' training school, U.S. Information Agency, Atomic Energy Commission, and Secret Service.

So far, the subcommittee has not delved into any bugging by the FBI, Central Intelligence Agency, military agencies, or others concerned with national security.

The witnesses seemed to enjoy the subcommittee invitation to display their wares.

Ward, the man from Mosler in Danbury, Conn., gave the "sales presentation," complete with flip chart, which he usually reserves for police officials.

"Our most popular item," he said, is a tiny radio-powered bug which can relay sounds for at least a block — even sounds which humans don't hear.

"These mikes are better than human ears," he boasted.

Their only limitation is when background noise is high. In one quiet house, he said, a first-floor bug had no trouble in passing on conversations from the second floor.

The best defense, Ward said, is to turn the TV or radio up loud and then hold conversations next to the set. New Yorkers, he said, are lucky in being able to ride the subway when they want privacy, as the background clatter will override their talk.

For long-distance bugging, his company makes a telescopic microphone, Ward said.

"It's so good that football coaches have agreed not to use it on each other's huddles," he said.

Many devices have been developed to find or jam bugs, the subcommittee was told, but as in other combat the offense has remained ahead of the defenders.

After a counter-agent has done everything possible to find a possible bug, Ward said, "all he can really say is that he didn't find any."

Emanuel Mittleman, who runs a one-man business in New York, proudly showed a far-out device that seemingly proved Ward's point.

It is a tiny gadget that can be attached in 10 seconds to the lead-in wires to any telephone.

Then the eavesdropper dials that telephone and sends a secret tone through the line. Nothing happens on the other end except that the telephone becomes an open microphone that will pick up every sound and send it thousands of miles to the listener.

Mittleman has sold a dozen of them at $400 each to private customers.

He said "I'd think twice" before selling it to someone who might want to use it "for nefarious purposes."

Questions Answered On U.S.-Soviet Union Hot Line

By EDWARD J. MOWERY
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—No telephones are used on the "hot line" . . . Its U.S. terminal is not located in the White House . . . The circuits do not directly link Washington and Moscow . . .

If U.S.-Soviet relations suddenly deteriorated, transmission time for a 250-word message over this line would be four minutes, with electrical signals traveling 186,000 miles per second. . . .

Both the Cyrillic (Russian) and Latin (English) alphabets are used in transmission. . . . All messages are encoded en route. . . .

These were among the candid answers to a list of questions submitted to the Pentagon, in an effort to explode myths and misinformation concerning the most crucial communications link between powers in world history.

The hot line has been operating "routinely," defense spokesmen said, since it was activated Aug. 30, 1963, after several months of testing.

"Information on the extent to which actual messages have been exchanged by heads of state," they added, "is not available."

The hot line actually consists of two teletype duplex circuits linking Washington and Moscow. The primary link normally used is a landline cable circuit via trans-Atlantic cable to London, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Helsinki and on to Moscow.

The secondary or backup circuit by radio—vital insurance against malfunction in the cable system—is routed between Moscow and Washington via Tangiers. It provides alternate "message capability."

Concerning location of the terminals, defense officials said the Russian terminal is in the Kremlin, and the U.S. version is in the National Military Command Center at the Pentagon "which is in continuous communication with the president at the White House, at the LBJ Ranch, while in flight, or wherever he may be."

Both the Pentagon area, which houses hot line equipment, and "communications with the president" received the "highest possible level of security protection." All messages are transmitted in the language of the sender.

An expertly trained crew of 15 military men make up the staff of the Pentagon hot line terminal. Two of the 10 teletype operators (enlisted men) and one of the five translators (officers) "are on duty at all times."

U.S. equipment for the Russian terminal was shipped to Moscow on the American ambassador's plane July 13, 1963, six weeks before the Russian machines arrived in Washington.

As to operations of the hot line, the Pentagon commented:

"Both cable and radio circuits are tested hourly by transmission of test messages . . . usually the customary teletype test message, 'The quick brown fox, etc.' Textual matter, that is from the Encyclopedia Americana, also is transmitted in test messages to the USSR."

(Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko recently said USSR hot line tests include extracts from Russian literature, while U.S. operators may transmit baseball results.)

There's no such thing as a "flash!" message on the hot line.

"All messages that might be exchanged between heads of state," the Pentagon declared, "will be considered of equal importance. Bell signals are used to signal operators for technical exchanges or testing.

"Messages, including tests, are automatically encoded during transmission and decoded during reception. This provides complete privacy so that it is not possible for test personnel along the route to intercept and read messages being transmitted.

"Continuous logs are maintained on the continuity of operation of both lines. All periods of outages (malfunction) are investigated to determine the cause and appropriate remedial measures."

Army Maj. Gen. George P. Sampson, deputy director of the Defense Communications System and U.S. negotiator for the hot line, said it required 49 days and 19 "formal meetings" to wrap up the U.S.-Soviet agreement.

He said "simplicity, accuracy and reliability" were the technical criteria in coming to an agreement.

"Strange equipment has obviously been mastered by both countries," he said, "and the operation is, at this moment, routine."

The Russian negotiators, he added, were "highly competent."

And at the signing of the agreement, "they were just as enthusiastic in their champagne toasts as we were."

Hot line costs to Uncle Sam are remarkably low in view of the vital role the communications network plays around the clock. Equipment and installation cost $159,849, annual cable-radio leases approximate $154,800 and yearly operation another $27,608, exclusive of military labor.

"In a letter I was privileged to receive from the president," Sampson observed, "the statement was made that 'such a practical step toward reducing the chance of accidental war is bound to serve our national interests as well as those of all mankind.'

"May it be God's will that this be so."

New Plan To Take Photos Of Moon Being Discussed

By WILLIAM E. HOWARD
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—Three astronauts orbiting the moon in a spaceship for 28 days could photograph every square foot of the lunar surface.

The pictures could then be used to pick the most interesting place to land two men who would remain up to two weeks on the moon exploring the terrain.

This is one of several plans now under study by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration for further utilizing the $20 billion worth of spacecraft and rockets being developed for the Apollo man-on-the-moon expedition.

Dr. George E. Mueller, chief of manned spaceflight for the agency, told the House Space Committee that with "minor additions" the three-man Apollo spacecraft could fly for 30 days. It is presently designed for a maximum of two weeks to accomplish the initial moon landing.

The mission duration can be extended further than 30 days, he said, by modifying the electrical power and environmental systems that keep the astronauts alive.

The so-called "Apollo extension system" is also being considered as an earth-orbiting manned or unmanned space station. It may figure into Air Force plans for a manned orbiting laboratory to determine more strategic uses of space.

The Departments of Commerce, Agriculture and Interior, Mueller said, also are studying how to apply Apollo's "new and unique capabilities." Just what they are thinking of doing with it, however, he didn't say.

NASA's proposed photographic survey would be accomplished by putting an extended mission Apollo into orbit about the moon's north and south polar axis. A program is already under way to take continuous TV pictures of the moon with an unmanned Lunar Orbiter spacecraft. It will be placed in orbit about the moon's equator to help select the site for the first manned landing.

Men in an orbiting Apollo spacecraft presumably could bring back much clearer photos that could be used to draw detailed maps.

Mueller said it would be possible to keep two explorers on the surface for two weeks by employing two Lunar Excursion Modules (LEM), also known as "bugs."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

There Are 24 Areas Of Body Where Painful Bursitis Strikes

VAN DELLEN

Bursitis usually is associated with pain in the shoulder. But there are 24 other bursas in the body and all are potential troublemakers, especially those of the elbow, knee, hip, wrist, and ankle. They are not useless appendages, nor were they created just to be bothersome.

They are cavities lined with a fibrous membrane that secretes a lubricant. The structures are located near joints and enable tendons or muscles which lie over them to glide smoothly against the bones that form the hinge. Bursitis occurs when the sac-like cushion is injured. This rarely is due to a blow; it is the accumulation of repeated insults, strains, or irritations.

IN THE ELBOW the bursa is affected by grasping or twisting movements of the hand. Such movements are performed every day by carpenters, press operators, painters, and professional golfers or tennis players. The politician also may complain of severe pain in the elbow after weeks of handshaking.

The domestic worker who gets down to scrub a floor may encounter trouble in the knee (housemaid's knee). Bursas in the shoulder suffer from repeated efforts to lift, push, pull, and twist.

A BUNION IS AN example of the type of bursa that protects underlying structures from injury. When a person wears pointed shoes, the big toe turns in and there is irritation of the inner edges of the metatarsal joint. The bunion acts as a cushion. Weaver's or tailor's bottom refers to an irritation of the ischial bursa (near gluteal muscles) that becomes irritated in those who sit for long periods of time.

Few disorders are as aggravating as bursitis. The pain may be so excruciating when there is inflammation that the victim is incapacitated. This was a serious problem a few decades ago, especially for skilled workers who had to make the movements that hurt. Nowadays, most of these lesions respond to injections of hydrocortisone—and to a lesser degree to Novocain. Diathermy, X-ray therapy, or ultrasonic treatments help. Surgery is required occasionally when calcium deposits persist.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

RINGWORM REMEDY

R. C. writes: Is it necessary to get frequent blood tests while taking grisofulvin for ringworm?

REPLY

A few instances of leucopenia have been reported but the white blood cell count returned to normal on cessation of medication. It is wise to do complete blood counts at regular intervals.

LIQUOR AND CANCER

R. M. writes: Could excessive drinking cause lung cancer?

REPLY

Not unless combined with excessive smoking.

France Is Sitting On Gold Wealth

By GEORGE W. HERALD

PARIS (WPS) — President de Gaulle's recent statements extolling gold as the supreme balancer in world trade were a good reflection of the conservative instincts of most of his countrymen. According to Paris experts, French citizens — who are allowed to buy gold freely — are hoarding in their wool stockings almost half as much gold as can be found at Fort Knox.

But hidden gold is unproductive. That's why France, sitting on her wealth, is now facing an economic crisis that threatens to lead this country into the most serious recession it has known since World War II.

Millions of Frenchmen were elated last December because the government, for the first time in 35 years, presented them with a balanced budget.

With their national penchant for thrift, they hailed this feat as a great victory in the battle against inflation. But actually this deflationary policy is having a reverse effect: A slow strangling of France's economy.

The government, in its endeavor to stabilize the franc, has blocked prices in many sectors. It has put a ceiling on wages in nationalized industries. It has restricted credit, and does nothing to encourage the public to invest savings in private enterprise.

As a result, the French growth rate has already declined 50 per cent, whereas it had been one of the fastest and most consistent growth rates in Europe since 1955. The rate, which was 7.4 per cent in 1963 dropped to 3.8 per cent in 1964, and prospects for 1965 are even less promising.

Hardest hit so far by the government's intervention have been the textile, automobile, household equipment, rubber and mining industries. Since last spring their production has gone down by an average 6 to 7 per cent. There is already some unemployment in the textile plants in the east, and several thousand automobile workers may soon find themselves out of work.

A certain stagnation is also observed in such branches as coal mining, the paper industry and publishing. The only fields which made continued progress in 1964 were oil (up nine per cent), steel (up 10 per cent) and construction materials (up 10 per cent).

But figures for the last two months show that steel orders have been diminishing, and many firms have cancelled projects to buy new plant equipment and machine tools.

These developments are hitting France at a time when it is exposed for the first time to the full rigors of Common Market and world competition.

Between 1958 and 1963 the EEC proportional tariff reductions didn't hurt France too much because the 20 per cent devaluation of the franc in December 1958 had left some room for maneuver. Moreover, French tariffs remained generally higher than those of the other EEC partners.

But now the devaluation has been more than absorbed by price increases, and EEC tariffs are getting close to zero. Thus the French market is being swamped by imports from its neighbors and — what irks de Gaulle most of all — from U.S. firms which have installed themselves all over the continent and brought with them cheaper production methods.

Under these circumstances, French employers have started raising havoc. The Conseil Nationale du Patronat Francais (National Council of French Employers) has issued a statement protesting against excessive government interference and demanding a return to free enterprise, freedom of prices and profits, and development of international competition.

De Gaulle has replied that the time of "liberal capitalism" is past, and that his duty is to regulate the economy in order to prevent inflation and social injustices.

But his rigid policies have produced some side effects that run counter to his own aims. By neglecting to mobilize French private savings for productive purposes, he has created a vacuum that has been filled by more enterprising American investors.

In 1964, not only Machine Bull (computers) and Simca (autos), but many other French concerns were virtually taken over by U.S. firms. Today, for instance, practically the entire French electronics industry, vital for the manufacture of atomic weapons, is in American hands.

De Gaulle has decided to take drastic steps against this "form of expropriation," as he calls it. He appears determined to reduce to a minimum the U.S. dollar influx into France in 1965.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Soap Opera Slides Over To CBS-TV

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The ratings success of ABC - TV's twice-a-week night-time soap opera, "Peyton Place," has brought forth the sincerest form of flattery from an opposition network. Starting in May, CBS-TV will present a twice-a-week night-time soap opera drawn from its long-popular daytime serial, "As The World Turns."

The program will be broadcast Wednesdays and Fridays, a half-hour each night. "Peyton Place" is on Tuesdays and Thursdays, also a halfhour each night. Says CBS-TV: "The project, representing a unique programming experiment, stems directly from the proven audience appeal of the continued story form of daytime dramatic programming." "Experiment" in this case is, of course, a euphemism for "imitation," for the night-time soaper originated with ABC-TV.

ABC-TV, in fact, must be doubling up with laughter while watching the spectacle of its two larger competitors trying hard to imitate its hit programs this season. First, NBC-TV imitated "Shindig" by introducing "Hullabaloo." And now CBS-TV is paying its compliments.

Well, obviously class tells in television.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Rep. Adam Clayton Powell is interviewed on CBS-TV's "Face The Nation" Sunday . . . Secretary of State Dean Rusk is the "Face The Nation" guest March 7 . . . As expected, CBS-TV's "Slattery' People" has been officially canceled for next season . . . NBC-TV's "Daniel Boone" will be in color when it returns next season.
